We're focused on providing a transformative cradle to career education that allows our children lives of choice and opportunity. By the age of 18, we want every child to leave our high school with the option of university or a high-quality alternative.

We are never content with an 'it'll do' attitude, and firmly believe that commitment and hard work is needed from all our people and our partners.

Our priority for Allerton Bywater Primary School is to establish a culture of continuous improvement. We expect all our staff to commit to being 'better, every day', in our mission to provide a transformative education for our children.

We are searching for an inspirational leader who can support the Headteacher to continue to rapidly strengthen the quality of education by:

- growing a powerful aspirational and values-driven culture where all children can succeed
- embedding a rigorous academic curriculum for all
- supporting and challenging staff to lead across different curriculum areas

We strongly encourage interested applicants to arrange an informal and confidential discussion about the role. Please contact head teacher Sarah Scotland on 01977 522620 or email Wendy Harrington on harrinw02@brigshawtrust.com to arrange a meeting with the trust CEO.
