L8-12 (£59,167.00-£65,286.00), starting point dependent on experience

To start January 2026

Are you looking for a school leadership position where no two days are the same? Where children love learning and diversity is celebrated? Where a dedicated staff team shares a positive ethos and everyone is valued and cared for?

Netherthorpe Primary is a vibrant and inclusive one-form-entry school close to the heart of the city. We are looking for someone who cares for children and sees their education as something that includes, but is not limited to, academic achievement. We are seeking a school leader who will work with our parents to ensure our pupils are happy, confident, kind and respectful of one another's individuality. The teacher we recruit will have high aspirations, not only for their own career but for every single one of our children.

Our strength at Netherthorpe is the diversity of the community we serve. Our children love coming to school and share a passion for learning. The majority speak an additional language – at any one time there are approximately 20 different languages spoken across school. This creates rich and exciting learning opportunities for the whole school community.

Due to the current role holder moving cities,, we are looking for a passionate and creative Deputy Headteacher who not only shares our inclusive ethos but wants to bring their own fresh ideas to the work we do.

Alongside a 0.4 teaching commitment, the appointed candidate will:

- look forward to engaging with our supportive community of parents, carers and wider stakeholders

- work alongside the Headteacher and Netherthorpe's dedicated staff team to further develop the excellent teaching and learning that takes place here
- have the opportunity to develop specific areas of their own expertise for the benefit of both their career and the school

In return, we can provide the successful candidate with:

- the opportunity to work with our amazing and hard-working children
- the Headteacher and governing body's commitment to your ongoing professional development
- the chance to make your mark on the Netherthorpe community as you progress on your leadership journey

School visits are strongly encouraged. To arrange an appointment, please contact the School Business Manager, Sarah Skelton, on 0114 2726384. To discuss the role informally, please ask to speak to the headteacher, Elizabeth Gray. Completed application forms, and any queries about the recruitment process, should be addressed to recruitment@netherthorpe.sheffield.sch.uk

Netherthorpe is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare and safety of children and young people and we expect all our staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (ROA) 1974. All shortlisted candidates will be asked to disclose any cautions or convictions prior to interview. The amendments to the ROA Exceptions Order 1975 (2013 & 2020) provide that certain convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are therefore not subject to disclosure to employers. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Ministry of Justice website.

The successful candidate will be required to complete an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check and a Children's Barred List check. Candidates are asked to read the school's safeguarding policy, which is available at:

Our Ethos and Values

The school's vision is underpinned by our aims and values. At Netherthorpe Primary School we undertake to:

- Provide a broad, stimulating, creative curriculum that engages and motivates pupils.
- Raise levels of attainment for all pupils, enabling every individual to achieve his or her personal best.
- Develop confident, disciplined and enquiring learners, able to make informed choices.
- Foster a love of learning.
- Promote self-esteem, resilience and personal responsibility, linked to respect for the needs and feelings of others.
- Facilitate considerate and positive relationships between all members of the school community.
- Ensure equal opportunities in relation to gender, ethnicity, faith, social class and special needs.
- Provide a safe and happy work place.
- Promote a thoughtful attitude towards the immediate and wider environment.
- Enable the development of literacy, numeracy and social skills essential for adult life.
- Providing lessons which are prepared, structured and paced to make effective use of time.
- Ensuring differentiation of learning intentions by outcome, task or adult support as appropriate.
- Valuing and celebrating pupils' success and achievements.
- Ensuring that lesson objectives and success criteria are stated clearly and concisely and are understood by pupils.
- Maintaining effective communication with parents.

Pupils contribute to effective learning by:

- Attending school regularly.
- Being punctual and ready to begin lessons on time.
- Being organised e.g. taking letters home promptly, returning reading books.
- Conducting themselves in an orderly manner.

- Showing respect for themselves and for others.
- Being positive and encouraging to other pupils.
- Following the school's Golden Rules.
- Making full use of the opportunities with which they are provided.
- Actively participating in all learning opportunities with a growth mind-set.
- Taking growing responsibility for their own learning.

Parents contribute to effective learning by:

- Ensuring that their children attend school regularly and punctually.
- Allowing and enabling children to take increasing responsibility as they progress throughout the school, e.g. for uniform, equipment and homework.
- Providing support for discipline within the school.
- Offering encouragement and praise to their children and celebrating successes.
- Giving due importance to homework including reading with their children.
- Keeping staff informed of any changes in children's circumstances which may affect their learning.
- Bringing any concerns they may have to school at the earliest opportunity.

Governors contribute to effective learning by:

- Challenging and supporting the leadership of the school.
- Monitoring the effectiveness of school development plans at a strategic level.
- Knowing the school well and understanding its context.
- Ensuring that the school's budget is well spent and focuses on priorities identified by the school that are based on evidenced need.
- Attending School Development Planning INSET (or make provision for views to be represented).

Please use the personal statement of the application form to demonstrate how you meet the various elements of the person specification. Please provide examples and evidence, wherever possible, of positive outcomes.

The deadline for receipt of applications is 11.59pm on Sunday 21st September 2025. Completed forms (and any enquiries) should be submitted to recruitment@netherthorpe.sheffield.sch.uk. School visits are encouraged.

An assessment centre and interviews will take place on Thursday 9th and Friday 10th October 2025.

The assessment centre will consist of a series of job-related exercises designed to give candidates the opportunity to demonstrate the key attitudes, skills and knowledge required for the post. Shortlisted candidates will be fully briefed ahead of the process.
