Dear applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the position of Deputy Headteacher.

Worden is a successful comprehensive convertor academy that has a proven track record of sustained improvement and a reputation for the highest behavioural and curriculum standards.

The position of sole Deputy Headteacher is a pinnacle role in school and the successful candidate will be an experienced leader who will join and lead a team of three highly committed and highly dedicated Assistant Headteachers, as well as being responsible for the curriculum and the quality assurance processes in school.

The school has ambitions to evolve into a multi-academy trust and therefore it is likely that there will be further career progression opportunities in the future.

Our educational ethos and policy is driven by pedagogical research and our commitment to reduce teacher workload whilst continually improving and maximising the quality of education that we deliver to our pupils.

We are committed to the development of all our staff and in turn we expect this to be reciprocated by all staff fully engaging in the direction of their continuing professional development.

If you want to work as part of a phenomenal team in a supportive and happy professional environment where the leadership believe that teachers have 'the right to teach and that the pupils have the right to learn', then we are the school for you.

Please take the time to read the associated information, and I wish you all the success in your application for the position of Deputy Headteacher. If you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact the school.

Yours faithfully,

Mr A Hammersley
Headteacher
