Personal data is kept in paper personnel files within Schools or within ODBST's electronic HR and IT systems, depending on the role applied for. This information is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your employment.

How ODBST process your data

The purpose of processing this data is to help us run the Trust, including to:

- Make an offer of employment to successful candidates
- Process data in order to enter in to an employment contract
- To ensure legal obligations are fulfilled, i.e. checking proof of right to work in the UK before employment commences and seeking information regarding criminal convictions and offences
- Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- Defend any legal claims
- Determine whether we need to make any reasonable adjustments to the recruitment process for candidates who have a disability
- For equality monitoring purposes
- Inform our recruitment and retention policies

The law on data protection allows us to process your data for certain reasons only:

- in order to perform the employment contract that we are party to;
- in order to carry out legally required duties;
- in order for us to carry out our legitimate interests;
- to protect your interests; and
- where something is done in the public interest.

All of the processing carried out by us falls into one of the permitted reasons. Generally, we will rely on the first three reasons set out above to process your data.

By way of example, the personal data that is provided by you, or requested from you, during a recruitment process will enable us to perform the employment contract that we are party to (e.g. pay you), carry out our legally required duties (e.g. ensure you have the right to work in the UK) and carry out our legitimate interests (e.g. ensure that in line with safeguarding procedures the appropriate checks have been made before you commence employment with us). Any data that is collected to adhere to the various safeguarding requirements in schools also has a pupil, and public, interest angle.

When we collect personal information on our forms, we will make it clear whether there is a legal requirement for you to provide it, and whether there is a legal requirement on the Trust to collect it. If there is no legal requirement then we will explain why we need it and what the consequences are if it is not provided.
