The Governors of this highly respected school wish to appoint an inspirational Deputy Headteacher. Our school has a caring, friendly environment and enjoys excellent relations with parents and our wider community.

The person appointed as Deputy Headteacher will:

- Be an outstanding and inspirational classroom practitioner with high expectations
- Work in partnership with the Headteacher in all aspects of leadership
- Be an excellent professional with good communication and interpersonal skills
- Have the ability to support, motivate and develop colleagues
- Work closely with all staff, Governors and our families to promote the school within the local community
- Help to further develop our Fairfield Curriculum and the quality of teaching and learning within it

Our School offers:

- Well-behaved, considerate and happy children who enjoy learning in this well-resourced environment
- A caring Governing Body, committed to ongoing school improvement, support and challenge
- The opportunity to develop leadership skills
- Children who are eager to learn and are enthusiastic about making a positive contribution
