

JOB VACANCY

The Federation of Kintore Way Nursery School & the Grove Nursery School Deputy Headteacher (Teaching and Learning) – required for September 2021

Salary: Leadership Scale points 8-12
Responsible to: Executive Headteacher
Working Pattern: This is a full-time post with a 0.6 teaching commitment

The Governors and Executive Headteacher are seeking to appoint an inspirational and dynamic Deputy Headteacher who is passionate about inclusive, high-quality, early years' education. This post is mainly based at Kintore Way with the opportunity for supportive visits to the Grove. Kintore Way is a very large Nursery School in the heart of Bermondsey, which has been judged 'Outstanding' by Ofsted. The Grove Nursery School is a small Nursery School with a beautiful garden, situated between Peckham and Camberwell. Both schools are highly regarded and valued for their inclusivity and expertise in supporting children with Special Educational Needs and/or Disabilities. We believe in promoting the 'four C's' – curiosity, confidence, cooperation and creativity.

We are looking for a dedicated and inspiring Deputy Headteacher who will:

- Have an excellent understanding and knowledge of recent early years' educational developments
- Be an outstanding teacher who is passionate about improving outcomes for children and their families
- Have the skills to play a key role in further developing the curriculum and quality of teaching and learning across the Federation
- Be an experienced leader with excellent interpersonal skills who can motivate, inspire and lead a diverse team
- Be committed to inclusive and anti-discriminatory practice

We can offer you:

- Children who are curious and excited to learn
- The opportunity to shape our vision
- Highly skilled and trained staff committed to providing the best care and education for young children
- A supportive and passionate leadership team
- The experience of working across a Federation to support the curriculum.

Candidates are strongly encouraged to visit by prior appointment.

Please contact Rebecca Sherwood, Executive Headteacher, for a discussion about the role and to arrange a visit.
