Part of

There are so many reasons to work at our amazing school!

What our staff say...

I have an amazing work life balance here due to structures and routines in place.

I have always been supported on my professional development and the ongoing appraisal process is working really well.

I am still as proud to work as Green End as when I got my job (a fair few years ago).

I take every opportunity to tell people how great our school is!

It is a great school to work for. You feel part of a team and aim to get the best results from the children.

I love Green End, I love the ethos and the opportunities for professional development.

What our parents say...

We are very thankful for the support provided and staff's willingness to talk about any concerns.

Green End is the best choice in Manchester City. I got a home in Burnage only for Green End School.

The school's atmosphere is very good. Teachers are very nice and polite, they respect everyone.

Nursery seems extremely nurturing, welcome and fun and we really like that you can accompany your child in and see what they have been learning.

Fantastic school, couldn't ask for better.

I love the way all the children of all age groups are spoken to. Really positive, encouraging and confidence building. Impressive to listen to.

School is great and allows parents to be involved in children's progress.

What our pupils say...

I have trusted adults around me and anything that seems not right, I know will be dealt with without any hesitation and before it gets out of hand.

I feel proud to be at Green End because we are a restorative school.

I feel proud because it is an amazing, outstanding school and since I'm in this school I know that I am or will be outstanding.

I enjoy school because I get my voice heard.

I really love how everyone persuades me to get things right and how they are always there to help me.

Dear Candidate

Thank you for your interest in becoming the Deputy Headteacher at Ladybarn Primary School, part of Kingsway Community Trust.

As an initial introduction to school, I would invite you to visit our website which can be found at www.ladybarn.manchester.sch.uk. We would also encourage and welcome your visit to Ladybarn Primary in order for you to experience, first-hand, the vibrancy of our teaching and learning.

This is a challenging opportunity for an exceptional candidate with significant senior leadership and teaching experience in urban primary schools. The Deputy Headteacher will lead on strategic areas alongside the Head of School and Executive Headteacher. Leadership responsibilities will include teaching and learning development, safeguarding, teaching assistant professional development and subject leadership development. There is a 2 day a week teaching commitment.

The ideal candidate will have senior leadership experience, ideally as an Assistant Headteacher, phase leader or teaching and learning lead role. Teaching experience in year 5/6 would also be desirable.

Ladybarn is a multi-cultural, urban primary school in South Manchester. It is a large two-form entry school with approximately 483 children on roll, including a full-time nursery.

The school has a rich cultural mix of pupils. 77.5% of pupils are from a Racially minoritised group, 68.1% of pupils are EAL speakers and 33 languages are spoken by pupils in addition to English. 42.0% of pupils are on Free School Meals and 42.8% of pupils are Pupil Premium.

Kingsway Community Trust has an excellent reputation for our forward-thinking approach and excellent teaching and learning. Our expertise includes nationally recognised work in developing EAL learners, British Council award winning international schools work and restorative school development. We work to enable all staff to be supported through extensive trust and school-wide networking, excellent training and development opportunities and pastoral support which includes staff as well as the children.

The Trust is led and managed by one Executive Headteacher and one Trust Board. In each school there is a full time Head of School who lead and manage alongside the Executive Headteacher. Throughout the school we have a dedicated team of professionals. They provide an unwavering commitment to the children, supporting them to achieve the highest standards. The staff promote resilience, aspiration, confidence and collaboration as a thread through everything they do with the children.

Job Description

Deputy Head Teacher (Full time)

Reports to: Executive Headteacher, Head of School and Governing Body

Salary Grade: L12 – L18

Main responsibilities

Reporting directly to The Head of School and Executive Headteacher, and the Trust Board as required

This position includes line management responsibility for cover / PPA teachers and subject leaders. It also includes overview responsibility for the quality of the curriculum delivered in PPA time, and a responsibility for the professional development of Teaching Assistants. It also has a two-day teaching commitment, including PPA time. The position is based at Ladybarn but with an expectation that the post holder would also work on Trust wide projects and activities, with staff in the other schools.

Main Responsibilities

- To support the Executive Headteacher, Head of School & Local Committee in creating the strategic direction of the school within the guiding principles of Inclusion and Equal Opportunities.
- To assist the Executive Headteacher and Head of School in the leadership and management of the school and to work with the staff team to promote the aims and ethos of the school by ensuring:-
 - Learning and school improvement is at the centre of strategic planning.
 - A consistent and continuous focus on pupil achievement using data and benchmarking to monitor the progress of every child.
- The policies of the school and Local Committee are implemented and reviewed.
- To undertake the duties and responsibilities of the Head of School in their absence.
- To assist the Head of School in maintaining good pupil behaviour and a positive school culture.

Professional Responsibilities

The post holder will be required:

- To act in accordance with the requirement of the relevant paragraphs of the School Teachers' Pay & Conditions Document and to undertake the professional duties of a deputy head teacher as set out in the document.
- To act in accordance with other legislation affecting the conduct of the school, with particular reference to diversity, inclusion and the urban context.
- To work within the expectations outlined in KCSIE

Specific tasks:-

- To assist the Executive Headteacher and Head of School in monitoring, evaluating and developing high quality teaching and learning and in whole school self-evaluation.
- To lead on teaching and learning across the school from Reception to Year 6
- To have class teaching responsibility 2 days equivalent a week (including PPA time)
- To take a key role in the School Improvement Plan ensuring that achievement for all pupils is maximised and standards of attainment raised.
- To monitor standards and outcomes
- To ensure that all subject leaders are working effectively and impacting on subject standards
- To be a nominated person for safeguarding and Looked After Children and take a lead in this area.
- To ensure that as the Designated Person for safeguarding in the school and Trust (DP), that training is updated at level 3 as required to keep the certification current.
- To work with curriculum and phase leaders to ensure that curriculum development is robust and motivational.
- To provide cover for teacher absence on occasions.
- To liaise with parents/carers and outside agencies.

Leading, Developing and Enhancing the Teaching Practice of Others By:

- Providing an effective role model in terms of teaching and learning practice.
- Ensuring effective implementation of school improvement priorities.
- Monitoring the quality of teaching and learning and sharing judgments with all relevant colleagues as appropriate.
- Identifying key areas for professional development linked to school Improvement plan and individual needs.
- Ensuring that such needs are addressed through provision of high quality coaching and mentoring and access to appropriate training and other CPD opportunities.

Managing and Developing the Work of Colleagues:

The post holder will:

- Act as performance management team leader and be professionally responsible and accountable for the continuous professional development of Support Teachers and Teaching Assistants.
- Be professionally responsible and accountable on a day to day basis for coordinating the work of teaching phase
- Oversee lunchtime staff and develop positive lunchtime experiences for the children

Other specific professional responsibilities:

The post holder will be accountable for:

- Learning resources and materials purchased, including an overview of budget requests and management of subject leaders whose area is not on the School Improvement Plan.
- The post holder must carry out her/his duties with full regard to the Trust's equality policies.
