Director of English
MPR/UPR
Required September 2026

"Wavell is a harmonious school where everyone pulls together to do their best"

"Pupils have very positive attitudes to learning and cooperate well with their teachers and classmates"
(Ofsted 2021)

We are an innovative school, highly regarded in the local community, and we are excited to invite passionate teachers to join our team. Our commitment to excellence is evident in our superb academic outcomes, which continue to soar, having achieved record-breaking results in recent years. Our exceptional culture and behaviour foster a positive learning environment, where mutual respect and high expectations enable every student to flourish. Due to the retirement of the longstanding Curriculum Leader we have a rare and exciting opportunity for an exceptional English practitioner to shape the strategic direction of a high performing subject area. As Director of Curriculum, you will work at a highly strategic level alongside a skilled team of middle leaders, driving innovation and excellence across the faculty. This role offers outstanding preparation for aspirant senior leaders, providing meaningful experience in wholeschool leadership, curriculum design and impactful line management.

English is a highly successful subject at The Wavell School, where students consistently make exceptional progress and achieve superb outcomes. The English Faculty benefits from its own dedicated teaching block and is staffed by a stable, innovative team whose collaborative ethos creates a vibrant, forward-thinking environment for learning and professional growth.

We are looking to appoint a dynamic classroom practitioner who:

- has excellent subject knowledge
- is resilient and resourceful
- sets a high standard and who inspires students to meet this
- makes learning exciting, leading to high levels of engagement and exam success
- thrives within a team and who enjoys collaborative working
- with a proven track record of excellent outcomes in both Languages and Literature

We will provide:

- exceptional culture and behaviour
- a supportive and welcoming professional environment
- a relentless focus on staff wellbeing
- regular opportunities for continuing professional development including programmes into Leadership
- structured support for ECTs and trainees, to help you settle and thrive in your new career
- professional challenge, with professional development opportunities for potential leaders of the future
- Access to Health Assured

We welcome visits from potential applicants

If you are ready to inspire and be inspired, we encourage you to apply and become part of our vibrant school.
Closing Date Thursday 29th January 2026 and interviews will be held on Friday 6th February 2026.

Please download an application pack from the School's Website.

Please note that applications will be considered as they are received by the School and you are therefore advised to submit your application as early as possible as some interviews may take place, and the appointment may be made before the closing date is reached for the post.

Wavell School is committed to safeguarding children and we promote the welfare of children and young people/vulnerable adults and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We are also committed to securing genuine equality of opportunity, whether required by law or not, in all aspects of our activities as an employer and service provider. This commitment is based on our belief in the broad principles of social justice and our aim is to provide services and employment on a fair and equitable basis. Our staff are encouraged to demonstrate their commitment to equality by taking active steps to: eliminate discrimination, promote equality of opportunity and promote good race relations.
