Headteacher Mrs Julie Summerfield

Early Years Assistant- Shaping Todays Children into Tomorrow's World

Salary Scale B £25615 - £25958

37 hours per week 52 weeks per annum

Are you a visionary who is passionate about nurturing young children, giving them the opportunity to gain knowledge and develop their imagination?

Come and join our ever developing, innovative and fun team who make it their mission to educate and shape our next generation through care, and enjoyable learning opportunities.

We are not just a 'childcare facility'. We are a family of creators where ideas thrive and our children respond with happiness and engagement.

You can enjoy social events alongside working with a supportive team in a friendly and welcoming environment.

We offer a competitive salary with a bonus structure linked to performance, free employee medical and financial support line, good professional development opportunities, College social events, employer contribution local government pension scheme, paid holiday entitlement which includes bank holidays.

Working hours operate on a rota system, 37 hours per week Monday-Friday between 7.30am and 6pm

Essential: A minimum Level 3 NVQ Childcare qualification or equivalent and experience of working within a nursery environment. You will have the ability to take the lead, whilst also working as part of a team.

Desirable but not essential (as training courses can be provided): Paediatric first aid, safeguarding, food hygiene. A basic level of computer literacy would be beneficial.
