Applicants will be expected to: work with the Early Years team in the planning and delivery of a creative and inspiring curriculum; take responsibility for high quality teaching provision in the Early Years; share and model good and outstanding practice; contribute to all aspects of school life. The successful candidate will ideally have a proven track record of improving Early Years settings and GLD in their previous school.

Additional benefits at working at Waltham Holy Cross Primary Academy:

- Weekly collaborative PPA time with your year group
- Lead practitioner support for planning and teaching
- Individual career programme for all staff
- Fast tracked leadership training scheme
- Children who have a love of learning and a highly motivated staff team
- A caring and happy learning environment
- High expectations and excellent behaviour
- Personalised staff well-being programme
- A commitment from NET to ensure there is a manageable workload

NET Academies Trust offer a unique chance to be part of a friendly and supportive team. Working as a part of a family of schools, teachers work in teams to share the responsibility for planning. We have a number of specialist teachers who work across our cluster who offer teachers expert support across the curriculum.

The Trust has a dedicated team that works hard to reach high standards in everything they do and this is further embedded through our successful relationships with parents, the local community and the other local schools within NET. At NET Academies Trust we believe in the future development of our teachers, our staff development programme has meant teachers are successful in progressing the next stage of their career.

Waltham Holy Cross joined NET Academies Trust in 2019, and is now led by an Executive Head Teacher whose school has been awarded “Employer of the Year 2018” by TES, “Winner of the National School Community Wellbeing in Schools Award 2019” by Place2Be and “Happiest Primary School” in the national 2019-20 happiness awards.

What Ofsted says about Waltham Holy Cross Primary School:

“Leaders and teachers have developed effective partnerships with parents and carers. The new system for recording children’s development allows teachers to share with parents information about their child’s learning. Many parents contribute to their child’s learning record, enabling teachers to gain a bigger picture of what children can do. This has had a positive impact on increasing parental engagement.”

What Ofsted says about NET Academies Trust:

“Strong and purposeful leadership is galvanising staff, raising expectations and transforming the culture of the school. Other senior leaders share your ambitious vision for the school.”
OFSTED 2018

“The executive headteacher has made an enormous contribution to the improvements in this school in the two and a half years that she has been in post. She uses the ‘fire in her belly’ and her very high aspirations to continually and doggedly pursue excellence in every aspect of school life. The executive headteacher has a very clear vision for the future development of the school, based on a thorough understanding of what works in education and how children learn.” OFSTED 2017
