Primary School

Early Years/KS1 Classroom Teacher Vacancy

Holmes Chapel Primary School, part of the Aspire Educational Trust are looking for an ambitious and inspirational Teacher/NQT. Would you like the opportunity to be part of a unique school community within a supportive and collaborative Multi Academy Trust, linked to a successful teaching school, and national research school?

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a strong teacher to join our unique school. Holmes Chapel Primary School is an outstanding co-educational primary school for children aged 4-11 years, currently with 420 pupils and 56 staff.

We expect our children to be resourceful, reciprocal, resilient and reflective. You will find our pupils friendly, well-behaved and very eager to learn. We have an active and supportive local academy committee, staff and parents/carers, with the additional benefit of the support of a local, experienced MAT. There is effective collaboration and partnership within the Trust and a strong commitment to continuing professional development.

To be successful you will be an outstanding Teacher with a 'can do approach', who is passionate about developing, delivering and articulating the vision, values and ethos of the academy. As an innovator you will develop creative approaches to continue to drive the high quality of teaching, learning and assessment, and ensure that our children enjoy their education whilst reaching their full potential.
