About us

Thomas Hickman School is a two-form entry school where 'curiosity hatches, creativity takes flight and learning soars to a sky of opportunity'. We are all B.I.R.D.S at THS – Brave learners, Independent and Inspirational learners, Resilient and Respectful, Determined and Scholarly – could you be one of our BIRDS too?

- We are a trauma-informed school with our own, bespoke 'Hand on Heart' approach to managing behaviour and relationships.
- We have a full-time therapist who works both with the children but also offers supervision to all staff members
- We have specialised teachers for Sport, Music, MFL
- We have wonderful children who need great Teachers and TAs
- We have a rich and diverse parent/carers community who fully support the school
- The school have bought into a Whole School Wellbeing Support package, with access to private mental health support, GP support, Counselling, physiotherapy, and an annual nurse-led health screen to name a few elements of this resource

About the role

If you like to be creative, imaginative and innovative - perhaps even slightly unconventional - we would love to hear from you. We are looking for the 'right fit' - that may be an experienced class teacher, emerging middle leaders. ECTs or Senior Practitioners.

For further information please see attached job description.

About you

The successful candidate will:

- Be ambitious to take their career to the next level
- Have the highest expectations of our children and a desire to develop the whole child.
- Have a keen interest on how Trauma and Adverse Childhood Experiences impact learning (Hand on Heart)
- Have excellent interpersonal skills
- Embrace our diverse community and celebrate difference - We have a 'No Outsiders' policy here!
- Have a clear understanding of how to raise standards through excellent teaching and learning
- Be a BIRD with a keen sense of humour, open to change, and the ability to enthuse and motivate
