

We are looking for a teacher to lead the development of provision for children with Autistic Spectrum Conditions (ASC) accessing our specialist Resource Base.

Are you:

- a committed and caring teacher who is a positive role model for all?
- experienced in teaching children with autism, in a resource base, mainstream or special school setting?
- a reflective and creative practitioner who provides outstanding learning opportunities?
- able to create an inclusive classroom so that all children achieve their potential?
- able to innovate and share best practice in order to have a positive impact across the school?
- someone who works collegiately for the betterment of the school community?

We offer:

- a creative environment with plenty of space for outdoor learning
- highly engaged parents and governors
- a supportive and approachable leadership team
- regular CPD and opportunities for career progression

Please refer to the Job Description and Person Specification available via the school website.

Applicants who believe they have the suitable experience and matching skills for this post are welcome to apply.

Edmund Waller Primary School is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment.

An enhanced DBS disclosure will be required for the successful candidate in accordance with Safeguarding Children and Safer Recruitment in Education legislation.

We strongly encourage all potential applicants to come and see us for yourselves. Please call 0207 639 0436 and ask for our Office Manager, Shanee (pronounced Shenee), to organise a time for a visit

Tour Dates:	Week commencing Monday 9th March – appointment only
Closing Date:	Thursday 19th March @ midday
Interview:	Week commencing 23rd March