

Exam Invigilator

Term-time only, zero hour contract

Salary: B3 £14.14 - £15.07 per hour

Good invigilators can make a real difference to our students during their important exam periods.

Guiselley School is seeking to expand our current team of Exam Invigilators. Opportunities to invigilate occur during the main examination period from May to June each year. We also have some need for Invigilators to assist with our internal examinations, taking place principally during November through to January.

Invigilators need to be team players, reliable and punctual, highly flexible, and able to relate to our students. Successful candidates will be accurate and pay attention to detail, remain calm under pressure and be confident in managing change as and when need arises.

Guiselley School is committed to the very highest standards of student care and achievement and seek outstanding staff who wish to be part of our success. We have a strong vision of success and achievement supported by an excellent professional development programme for all staff.

Our school site offers state of the art buildings and an excellent working environment.

The role is offered on a casual, zero-hour basis.

Full application details are available via our website:
