

Exam Invigilators

November 2025

The Boulevard
Academy

Thank you for enquiring about the position of Exam Invigilator at The Boulevard Academy. As Interim Headteacher, I feel fortunate to work with an outstanding and dedicated team of colleagues who are working well for our students and community.

The Boulevard Academy opened in September 2013 as a result of a need to offer greater opportunities for children locally, to learn and develop in a way that's best for them and our aim is to offer learners and parents a community-centred secondary education.

I firmly believe that every child has unique skills and talents and that they should be given every opportunity to develop them. I hold an unwavering expectation that all children can and will succeed.

I want to ensure:

- That every child makes progress, no matter what their starting point
- That our teaching will be matched to needs
- That we support our community.

A recent physical expansion has led to increased student numbers and wider specialist provision for specific students.

CPD and innovative staff development is how we develop and grow. Staff joining us will have opportunities for development at all levels and I encourage all staff to actively contribute their ideas in developing new ways of working.

I look forward to reading your application and meeting you
