Executive Headteacher

Group 2 (L12-L21) £55,338 - £69,031

1.0 FTE, permanent

Required: September 2021

We have an exciting opportunity for an experienced and outstanding leader to join the Newhampton C.E Schools Federation as Executive Headteacher.

Since May 2016 Newtown and Welshampton C.E. Primary Schools have been federated to form the Newhampton C.E. Schools Federation. The Governors are seeking to appoint an inspiring and highly effective individual who will motivate staff and drive the schools forward. They will build on the strong and outstanding reputations and excellent relationships. We are looking for somebody with vision and energy.

We can offer you

- A dedicated staff team and governors who are united in our desire to improve children's lives through creative and enrichment opportunities;
- A strong Federation partnership which ensures excellent working relationships with parents, the local community and all stakeholders;
- Happy, positive and vibrant school environments benefitting from children who are happy to come to school and want to learn;
- The opportunity to continue your own professional development, and that of your staff, while making your own mark on our wonderful schools.

We are looking for somebody who:

- Has proven leadership skills, strong team building skills and is committed to excellence in teaching and learning;
- Is excited by the opportunity to lead and develop the schools within the federation.
- Offers highly organised, managerial and interpersonal skills to be able to effectively lead and motivate a staff team;

- Has the desire to encourage and inspire children to reach their potential through high expectations for achievement and behaviour.

We welcome applications from experienced senior leaders with a proven track record in working towards excellence.

We strongly encourage you to visit our schools, meet our staff and children, and see our fantastic facilities for yourself.
