

EXECUTIVE SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT LEAD (SECONDARY)

Salary: Negotiable

Part-time: 2 days a week: permanent or secondment/fixed term model considered

A unique opportunity has arisen for an experienced secondary school headteacher or senior leader to join The Talentum Learning Trust. We are looking for a dedicated professional to widen the capacity of the trust central executive team.

This position offers the ideal opportunity for an ambitious professional with a track record of successful secondary school improvement to broaden their skills and gain experience of an executive leadership role. Candidates should be committed to making a difference through implementing educational excellence across our trust. You will be supported by the CEO, the central executive team and a committed board of trustees.

Established in 2016, the trust has grown to a group of nine (cross-phase) schools operating in and around the market town of Leek and continues to work closely with local maintained and associate schools. You would join the trust at an exciting stage of its development. We are a truly collaborative trust; thriving on positive relationships between like-minded professionals.

We are looking to recruit an individual with the insight to identify and promote best practice and the interpersonal skills and resilience to support and challenge our schools effectively by leading meaningful partnership work across the trust's academies, improving outcomes for the young people in our community.

This newly created role is an exciting opportunity for an exceptional and inspirational secondary professional who has the aspiration, integrity and experience to impact on improvement across the trust's secondary academies.

In order to secure the right candidate, the trust will consider flexible models. We are able to offer the post permanently or as a fixed term secondment arrangement. Start date to commence at the earliest opportunity.

To arrange an initial conversation about the role and learn more about our trust, please email our CEO, Lise Houldsworth lhouldsworth@ttl.org.uk
