KS1 & EYFS Class Teacher – Job Description

'Love to Learn and Learn to Love'

POST: EYFS Class Teacher

SALARY: Main pay scale range 3-4 (not suitable for ECTs). Point in line with the current School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document

Line manager/s: The headteacher, members of the SLT and the governing body.

Supervisory responsibility: The post holder is responsible for the supervision and deployment of the EYFS teaching assistants.

Purpose

- To support children and parents when settling children into the class and school environment, according to each family's needs.
- To lead the EYFS team and to enable each member of staff to contribute fully.
- To enable young children to make good progress in their learning by building upon the skills they have when they join the school in nursery or reception class.
- To assist all children to develop emotional security, self-belief and social skills.
- To promote a love of learning and an excitement about coming to school each day.
- To maintain the highest levels of conduct and professional behaviour.
- To take responsibility for safeguarding the welfare of children within the school.
- To build good relationships with parents and carers and work in partnership to ensure the best outcomes for children and families.
- Act within the statutory frameworks, which set out their professional duties and responsibilities, and in line with the duties outlined in the current School Teachers Pay and Conditions Document and Teacher Standards.

All class teachers are accountable for the progress of the children that they teach. All teachers are required to carry out the duties of a schoolteacher as set out in the current School Teachers Pay and Conditions Document. Teachers' performance will be assessed against the teacher standards as part of the appraisal process as relevant to their role in the school.

Responsibilities of the job

Planning learning

1. Plan rich and stimulating learning activities for EYFS which achieve good progression in pupils' understanding by:

- identifying clear learning objectives and learning content, appropriate to the areas of learning and the children being taught
- being aware of individual children's needs and interests and utilising these in planning learning within and outside the classroom
- setting exciting and intriguing tasks for whole class learning, small group learning and child-initiated learning
- setting clear targets for pupils' learning that build on prior attainment
- together with the SENDCO, identifying and meeting the needs of pupils who have special educational needs, are more able, or are not yet fluent in English

- ensuring that learning is appropriately differentiated so that the learning is well-pitched, and all children are challenged at their current level of understanding
2. Create a rich, stimulating learning environment that will capture attention, create excitement and lead to independent exploration.
 3. Make effective use of assessment information on pupils' attainment and progress when teaching and in planning future learning.
 4. Seek and plan opportunities to develop pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development.

Teaching and classroom management

1. Ensure effective teaching of the whole class, and of groups and individuals within the whole class setting, so that learning objectives are met, and pupils' learning time is used efficiently.
2. Use a variety of teaching methods to capture children's interest.
3. Set high expectations for children's behaviour, by providing engaging teaching and through positive and productive relationships and an emphasis on our School Vision, Values and Christian ethos.
4. Establish a safe, clean and secure learning environment which promotes pupils' confidence.
5. Be familiar with the Code of Practice on the identification and assessment of Special Educational needs and, with advice from the SENDCO, carry out the Assess, Plan, Do, Review process.
6. Demonstrate an understanding of and take responsibility for promoting high standards of literacy including the correct use of spoken English.
7. Give pupils regular feedback, both orally and through accurate marking, and encourage pupils to respond to the feedback.
8. Evaluate your own teaching critically and use this to improve your effectiveness.

Monitoring, assessment, recording, reporting and accountability

1. Assess how well learning objectives have been achieved and use this information to improve specific aspects of teaching and learning.
2. Maintain good organisation and informative observations of children, and identify children who may need additional support quickly, making plans to close any gaps.
3. Be familiar with statutory assessment and reporting requirements and report information to parents in a meaningful way.
4. Understand the expected demands of pupils in relation to the EYFS Good level of development and prepare them for these assessments so they can approach them with confidence.

Team Working and Collaboration and Professional Development

1. Participate in any relevant meetings/professional development opportunities at the school, which relate to the learners, curriculum or organisation of the school including pastoral arrangements and assemblies.
2. Proactively participate with the performance management and appraisal process.

3. Work as a team member and identify opportunities for working with colleagues and sharing the development of effective practice with them.
4. Work with the EYFS team, valuing each member and providing opportunities for them to contribute to planning and ideas. Ensure that colleagues working with you have a voice and are appropriately involved in supporting learning and understand the roles they are expected to fulfil.
5. Take part as required in the review, development and management of the activities relating to the curriculum, organisation and pastoral functions of the school.
6. Cover for absent colleagues within the remit of the current School Teachers' Pay and Conditions document.
7. Foster close relationships with parents/carers and the wider community. Assist them to support their child's learning at home. Present a positive image of the school to all other stakeholders.
8. Make a positive contribution to the wider ethos and life of the school, such as by running clubs and preparing items for concerts and productions.

Other

1. To have professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of Corbett (VA) CofE Primary School, and maintain high standards in your own attendance and punctuality and professional conduct.
2. Perform any reasonable duties as requested by the Headteacher.
