EYFS Class teacher required from January 2022 (Maternity Cover with potential to be made a permanent position)

We are looking for a teacher to undertake maternity cover for our lovely Clover Class. Clover class has 21 children with full time TA support and planning is shared across the EYFS team. This is initially a maternity cover contract but may lead to a permanent position.

We are a good school (Ofsted 2018) set in an expanding rural setting with an intake of up to 75 children per year. The governors and staff are committed to providing an education of the highest quality which is relevant and challenging, set in a nurturing, secure, stimulating environment in which all individuals feel respected and valued, enabling them to attain their optimum potential. We promote the highest levels of citizenship so that children can go forward with an independent love of learning and a tolerant appreciation of others that will stand them in good stead for the rest of their lives.

Here at EBPS we are proud to say that we have:

- supportive and hardworking teaching and support staff teams who are keen to make learning fun, exciting and relevant for the children.
- a strong leadership team who drive the school forward
- a proactive governing body
- supportive parents, several volunteer regularly in the classroom
- an active PTA who help us keep our teaching and learning environments modern and well resourced.

Visits to the school are strongly recommended. Please phone the school office to arrange a visit.

Closing date for applications: 12pm, Monday 29th November 2021

Anticipated Interview date: Wednesday 1st December 2021

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and safer recruitment process. An enhanced DBS check is required for all successful applicants and references will be requested for shortlisted applicants prior to interview.

Please download an application pack from the school website. Completed application forms should be sent to: bursar@earlsbarton-pri.northants-ecl.gov.uk
