We are looking to appoint an effective and dedicated teacher with the suitable experience to lead an Early Years class from September 2025 onwards. We welcome applications from ECTs and experienced teachers.

St Mary's CE Primary School is a successful and inclusive Church of England Primary School serving the local community – currently graded good by Ofsted and outstanding by SIAMS.

You would be joining a friendly and hard-working staff team, working in partnership with our supportive families and committed Governing Body to provide our enthusiastic and well behaved children with high quality learning opportunities.

We are looking for a primary practitioner who:

- Is a consistently effective teacher
- Has a passion for and a proven track record and commitment to raising standards
- Is enthusiastic and keen to progress professionally
- Is committed to school improvement
- Is creative and innovative
- Is able to motivate and inspire colleagues
- Conveys a positive 'can-do' attitude!

Visits to the school are recommended.
