Do you have any adult cautions (simple or conditional) or spent convictions that are not protected as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2020? (Y/N)?

The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. ## GUIDANCE ON HOW TO FILL IN THIS APPLICATION FORM

1 Checklist

- Complete all sections of the form
- Previous Employment/Career History: You must give your full employment history; paid or unpaid and explain any gaps in employment
- Education Qualifications & Training: Please list these and record any membership of professional bodies. Please note that if you are appointed we will need to see your original qualification certificates.
- Personal statement: Ensure when completing the personal statement that you communicate how you believe you meet the criteria in the person specification for the role. Choose those areas of your abilities, skills and experience that are relevant to the job you are applying for. Remind yourself of qualities and skills you may take for granted. Remember, as well as telling us about paid work you have done, you should also consider other experience you may have. This might include experience gained at home, in the community or through voluntary, leisure or college activities.
Please restrict your Personal Statement to no more than 2-sides of A4.

If you consider yourself to be disabled, you are encouraged to declare your disability when applying for a job. We are positive about employing disabled people within the physical restraints of the building.

2 References

It is our policy to approach current employers, whether or not you name them as a referee. We also approach additional previous employers where necessary. If it is your wish that we do not contact your referees before interview, please indicate this on the form. References will not be accepted from relatives or people writing solely in the capacity of friends.

3 Prevention of illegal working

Under Section 8 of the Asylum and Immigration Act 1996, it is a criminal offence for an employer to employ a person who is subject to immigration control (i.e. a person who requires leave to enter / remain in the UK) unless he or she is entitled to be employed in the UK. We ask all shortlisted candidates to provide evidence at interview that they are entitled to work in the UK.

4 Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

All school based posts are exempt from the Act. You must advise us of any conviction you have had in the past. Please submit with your application form details of the conviction(s) or offence(s) in a sealed envelope marked 'private and confidential' with your name and the title of the job for which you are applying. The envelope will be opened by the Head only. Failure to disclose any conviction(s) for an exempt post, whether spent or not, may lead to the withdrawal of the offer of employment. If you declare that you have a criminal record this will be assessed in relation to the tasks you will be required to perform and the circumstances in which the work is to be carried out.

5 Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS Checks)

We use the DBS to assess the suitability of applicants for positions of trust and fully comply with the DRB's Code of Practice. We undertake to treat all applicants fairly and not to discriminate unfairly against anyone who is the subject of a Disclosure on the basis of convictions or other information revealed. DBS checks are required for all staff. A criminal record will not necessarily be a bar to your appointment.

Full details of the DBS can be obtained from www.gov.uk/disclosure-barring-service-check or by telephoning 0870 90 90 811. We comply with the requirement of the DBS in relation to secure storage and handling of data.

In order to monitor and ensure the effectiveness of this, all applicants are asked to provide the following information.
