

EYFS Phase Leader

- Salary: MPS or UPS (dependent on experience) plus TLR
- Contract type: permanent
- Start date: September 2021

Are you passionate about early years? We are looking for a brilliant phase leader who already has experience of leadership or is well prepared to take on a phase leader role to lead our reception and nursery provisions and work alongside our committed and enthusiastic EYFS team.

The successful candidate will:

- Be passionate and knowledgeable about outdoor learning and environment
- Value inclusion, diversity and equity
- Be actively engaged with the current educational landscape, research and committed to developing their practice
- Understand how to build positive relationships with their team, children, families and the whole Henwick community
- Relish the opportunity to further develop our EYFS provision and be keen to make a tangible difference to our young people.

We can offer:

- Motivated children who are a joy to be around
- A commitment to your professional development and opportunities for career progression
- Thoughtful, hardworking and supportive colleagues
- A reflective senior leadership team that is outward facing and takes wellbeing seriously
- The chance to be part of an innovative partnership of schools and make a real difference

This post is not suitable for NQTs.

About Henwick Primary School
