Our school is an exciting one to work in and we have a team of committed staff and governors who work exceptionally hard to give the children in our care the very best – our recent Ofsted recognised the importance of every person in our school community being part of the 'Christ Church family'. Staff are exceptionally well supported and developed as outstanding practitioners. We have a strong inclusive and supportive ethos, experienced teaching assistants, a well-resourced curriculum and fabulous children. If you want to be part of something special, please contact us.
