The School

You will be working with a pioneering group, Nishkam School Trust, which is a flagship DfE Free School, and is the first multi-academy free school trust in the UK.

The core of a Nishkam education is the triple pursuit of: academic excellence, the development of a learning community that supports children throughout their lives and a strong virtues-led approach to life, which is nurtured and supported throughout and beyond the curriculum.

Our children are a delight to teach, and fully engaged in their virtues-led education. The School and Trust is exceptionally well-resourced with enthusiastic and hardworking staff, and the support team dedicated to the wellbeing of all pupils.

The Role

As a key member of the Trusts pastoral and teaching support team you will complement the professional work of teachers by working with pupils and families experiencing health, social emotional and behavioural difficulty and / or at risk of social exclusion / disaffection and their families, so they can participate fully in home and school activities in order to achieve their full potential.

The successful candidate is also required to promote good attendance and assist in the removal of any barriers for learning experienced by families and pupils. You will be a key person in safeguarding assisting the Designated Safeguarding Lead. You will be a familiar face for families as their first point of call in many instances.

Nishkam School Trust (NST) are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share in this commitment. Any successful applicant will be required to undertake an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service Check.
