Are you driven to make a difference, making every day count for every child?

Are you an experience school leader, with aspirations to be become a Head Teacher?

Are you looking for the opportunity for development via support and CPL, that will enable you to realise your career ambitions?

If you answered yes to the above, we want to hear from you!

Work with us in our relentless pursuit for excellence, sharing in our mission to make every day count for the children within our schools. We are looking for an enthusiastic leader, determined to ensure that every child has the opportunity to reach their potential. This unique position offers the successful candidate the opportunity to be part of an ambitious leadership team in a school within the Trust, whilst growing and developing as a leader with the ultimate ambition to secure a Headship within our Trust.

Geographical preferences will be taken into consideration at the point of appointment, identifying the right school for you. As Deputy Head Teacher you will work alongside an exceptional Head Teacher/ System Leader, who will grow and enable your development. The post holder will fulfill the responsibilities of a Deputy Head Teacher, in line with the needs of the school, with the opportunity to act-up as and when appropriate. Significant professional learning will be provided by the Trust, and the candidate will form part of our 'fast track to Headship programme', which is currently in development and will include a bespoke package of coaching, mentoring and CPL. Where appropriate, candidates will also be supported to access NPQH.

Flying High Trust is a growing partnership of 28 schools across north and south Nottinghamshire, Nottingham City and Derbyshire. The Trust aims to deliver sustainable school improvement; schools joining the Trust do so with the prime aim of improving each other so that they can all become exceptional schools at the heart of their communities.

Working together, relentless in our pursuit of excellence to create the best schools in the universe.

As a large Multi Academy Trust, we were ranked as one of the top 5 performing Trusts in both reading and maths, with particular success in the progress of our disadvantaged pupils. A significant part of this success is due to our commitment to a professional continuum, growing and developing the potential of staff across the schools. This Trust appointed Deputy Head Teacher will form a key part of this strategy to develop talent, with the intention to invest in the candidate to enable their career ambitions to be fulfilled.

Look forward with confidence!
