

Job Description

As well as the responsibilities set out below there may on occasion be reasonable requests for other duties not listed. These will always be within the scope of your role and capability.

Job Title	Food Teacher	Location	Marlwood School	Hours	0.6 FTE
Reports to	Head of Subject	Line Manages	N/A	Grade	MPR-UPR
Qualifications: QTS
Role Profile
To support and challenge all students to achieve their full potential and achieve academic success within this subject, through strong classroom practice. The postholder will be expected to act as a role model to all students upholding the school values, and at all times promoting the safety and welfare of young people in accordance with CSET/School policies and procedures.
Person Specification
You will be a qualified teacher who has a clear passion for their subject area(s) and a strong desire and commitment to share this with young people. You will have detailed working knowledge of your subject area, and the skill to translate this into engaging and impactful pedagogy, that will ensure deep learning which results in positive outcomes for all. You will be personable and approachable and be able to quickly build warm and effective relationships with students, and colleagues in school and across the Trust. You will execute your duties in a professional manner, modelling and setting high standards in all areas of school life, and implementing school policies with consistency. You will be a proactive member of your faculty, demonstrating initiative and a can-do approach, as well as being agile so as to meet changing needs in your environment. You will have an up to date knowledge of safeguarding and child protection legislation and the willingness to implement this in accordance with CSET wide and school policies.
Responsibilities
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To teach Food up to GCSE</li> <li>• Maintain a thorough and up-to-date knowledge of the teaching of your subject and to take account of wider curriculum developments which are relevant to your work</li> <li>• Plan lessons and sequences of lessons in line with relevant subject curriculum plans and to help in the writing of Schemes of Work.</li> <li>• Deliver engaging lessons that inspire and enthuse learners, drawing on teaching and learning strategies that are research based, and that meet the needs of all pupils, including those with specific needs.</li> <li>• Evaluate student learning and progress through carrying out formative and summative assessment, giving students clear and constructive feedback in line with the department assessment policy and statutory reporting requirements for parents.</li> <li>• Aim to ensure that, as a result of your teaching, your students achieve well relative to their prior attainment, making progress as good as or better than similar students nationally and in the school.</li> <li>• To work alongside your subject leader and be an active team member within the department, contributing to whole school and subject improvement priorities, and implementing school wide policies and procedures that align to your work.</li> <li>• Take an active part in the whole school and CSET CPD programme.</li> </ul>

Job Description

As well as the responsibilities set out below there may on occasion be reasonable requests for other duties not listed. These will always be within the scope of your role and capability.

- Assume responsibility for a tutor group and actively contribute to the school's wider extra curricular programme of activities
- To implement the school behaviour management policy against the backdrop of the school values, promoting respectful and positive relationships across the school community.
- Safeguard and promote the welfare of all students in the school.
- To implement school and CSET policies.