Our school is very highly regarded, heavily oversubscribed, has a strong community ethos and enjoys examination results which are well above national averages. We are looking for a teacher who is able to motivate and enthuse young people, raising their expectations and accelerating their progress. The successful candidate will join a collegiate department which has consistently achieved good results over the years, through a high level of commitment to ensuring that our students achieve the very best. The successful candidate will lead on the teaching of Food Technology in KS3 and KS4 and BTEC Hospitality at KS5. They will encourage pupils to express themselves in the kitchen whilst building their awareness of a healthy lifestyle and balanced diet.

We are looking for a candidate who has:

- The ability to teach across all key stages
- A commitment to high quality teaching and learning, including the use of new technologies
- A desire to lead in the process of curriculum development within the department
- A commitment to the popular extra-curricular dimension of the department
- A commitment to the development of the whole person
- A desire to develop their leadership and management skills within the department and beyond

We will offer

- An outstanding opportunity to be part of a committed Design and Technology Department
- A friendly, vibrant and caring school where courses within this department are popular
- A strong commitment to CPD and a very supportive induction programme
- An enterprising and 'can do' ethos where initiative and innovation are warmly embraced
- Career development opportunities

FCBS is committed to promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children. This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act and as such all candidates will be subject to an enhanced DBS check.

Candidates wishing to visit the school are welcome to do so by appointment. An application form for this post can be downloaded from our website and should be returned to the Headteacher, Niamh Arnall, via at info@finchleycatholic.org.uk The closing date is noon on Monday 14th June. Interviews will be held as applications are received. We reserve the right to appoint a suitably qualified candidate before the closing date.

Applications from non-Catholic teachers who are willing to support the values and ethos of a Catholic school are warmly invited
