You've never worked in a school like this...

At Bradfield, we do things differently. We believe every child can be brilliant, and every teacher too. Our classrooms are calm, purposeful and full of curiosity. Our children are respectful, engaged and a pleasure to teach. And our team? United, ambitious, and determined to make our school the best place any of us have ever worked.

We're looking for a KS2 teacher who:

- Loves teaching and learning (and wants to keep getting better)
- Has high standards, warmth and a sense of humour
- Believes that culture, belonging and consistency matter
- Wants to be part of a school that's unapologetically committed to excellence

In return, you'll get:

- Weekly professional learning that actually makes a difference
- A personal pedagogy plan and coaching to help you grow
- A team that has your back, celebrates your wins and are committed to the emotional and mental wellbeing of both pupils and staff
- A beautiful, modern teaching environment
- A small, single aged class with a full-time teaching assistant
- Children who are exceptionally well behaved and make you proud to do the job every day

"Bradfield has completely changed how I see teaching. The professional learning here is the best I've ever experienced; we're all growing together."

Ofsted described our work as "exceptional and inspirational" (April 2025).

Visits to our school are warmly encouraged – come and feel the difference. Please contact the school office on 01189744304 or email Katharine at finance@bradfieldceprimary.co.uk to arrange a time to visit or to discuss the position in more detail.
