

Head of Art MPS plus TLR 2a (£3,017)

The Governors at Cornelius Vermuyden are seeking to appoint an ambitious and inspirational teacher to lead the Art Department from Easter 2023.

The successful candidate will have the drive and passion to enthuse our students and make a real difference to their outcomes and life chances. They will be able to plan and deliver motivating and challenging lessons whilst setting appropriate and stimulating work for all abilities. They will be committed and ambitious for their own professional development and team members that they lead.

If you are passionate about ensuring that young people enjoy and make exceptional progress in Art and have the ability to lead a team of committed teachers, we would welcome your application.

This is an exciting opportunity to join an oversubscribed, purpose built school, located in 38 acres of land. We have a fully resourced ICT suite for our hardworking and friendly students, as well as a range of state of the art mobile devices, and we are determined to work with our students to give them the best life chances possible.

Cornelius Vermuyden is a highly successful school, with a national reputation for innovative educational practice using our state of the art facilities. The school also boasts a purpose built Teacher Training Room for sharing practice.

Cornelius Vermuyden School promotes the values of Trauma Perceptive Practice (TPP) in all that we do:-

- Compassion and Kindness
- Hope
- Connection and Belonging

Furthermore, we expect all of our staff to model and uphold these values to our school community.

Please apply using the accompanying application form. Alternatively, you can visit the school's website, www.corneliusvermuyden.com, and use the application form under Key Materials in the vacancy section under Staff Information. Please send your completed application to Mrs A Beckman, Headteacher's PA, either by email to abeckman@corneliusvermuyden.com, or by post to the school's address.

CVs alone will not be accepted. CVs sent via a recruitment agency will not be considered.

The governing body is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This post will be subject to full employment checks, including an enhanced disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service.

We reserve the right to close this vacancy early if there is a good level of response. We would recommend therefore that you submit your application as early as possible. We also reserve the right to make appointments before the closing date.

Please note that only those applicants who are asked to attend for interview will be contacted.

Closing date: Friday 27 January 2023, midday

Interviews expected to be held w/c 30 January 2023
