

Bartholomew School

Head of Biology (TMS + TLR 2a)

Preparing students for a bright, exciting and happy future

We require, for January 2024, a dynamic, skilled and inspirational teacher to lead the teaching of Biology within this outstanding school (Ofsted May 2009 and June 2013). This will be a key appointment at this very popular, oversubscribed school. The successful candidate will have accountability and responsibility for the A level Biology curriculum and outcomes.

Bartholomew School is founded on a positive, caring community ethos and the critical attribute for the successful candidate is the capacity to make a major contribution to developing our already excellent standards in Biology within our very strong Science department. We have a successful track record of providing an education which delivers consistently high standards as well as the resilience, flexibility, and emotional intelligence which ensures that our young people have the potential to be leaders of the future.

The successful candidate will:

- be an excellent teacher of Biology (KS4 & 5) and Science (KS3).
- have high level strategic vision, delighting in challenge
- have a strong commitment to quality and sustained improvement in teaching and learning
- be able to lead, develop, motivate and inspire others to raise standards
- have a commitment to inclusion and maximising every child's achievement
- be an excellent communicator and have a desire to be innovative

We can offer you:

- highly supportive, talented and committed students, staff and governors
- high standards of achievement and excellent value added at all key stages
- a caring and inclusive school that nurtures the development of all
- professional development and support for fast career progression

Bartholomew School and the EPA is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people/vulnerable adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This position is subject to appropriate vetting procedures including a criminal record check from the Disclosure and Barring Service (formerly CRB) which will require you to disclose details of all unspent and unfiltered spent reprimands, formal warnings, cautions and convictions as part of the recruitment process.

Please also note that, due to Safer Recruitment in Schools, we usually seek references after long-listing candidates and before short listing takes place, to allow adequate time for the return of references.
