

OAKLANDS SCHOOL

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Head of Head of Business & Economics

MPS/UPS + TLR2a (Inner London Scale)

Please address these in your application form and interview:

Essential

1. Qualified Teacher Status
2. Successful recent experience of teaching in a comprehensive school
3. Ability to teach outstanding lessons at all Key Stages
4. Determination to build and lead a successful Business & Economics department
5. Evidence of achieving high standards at GCSE and A level
6. A detailed knowledge of the requirements of specifications for Business & Economics
7. The ability to deliver and monitor whole school policies across the department
8. The ability to monitor student progress and analyse data with regard to student performance
9. The ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing
10. The willingness and ability to contribute to whole school developments through innovation and support
11. The ability to monitor the work of the faculty to further develop teaching and learning.
12. The ability to share a passion for Business & Economics with students.
13. The ability to organise and deliver high quality enrichment activities in Head of Business & Economics for students.
14. A commitment to the school's and the authority's equal opportunities policies.
15. An excellent record of attendance and punctuality.

Desirable

1. Experience as an examiner
2. Experience of leading whole department initiatives