Robert May's School, an Academy Trust, has been serving the community of Odiham and the local area since 1694. We aim to provide excellence every day and are committed to providing the best possible outcomes for our students, with learning at the centre of all that we do. Our ethos of mutual respect and supportive relationships enables students to develop as well-rounded individuals who leave us well-prepared for their next steps in life.

Person specification for Head of Computer Science and ICT (TLR 2d)

Essential	Desirable
Graduate with a good Computing or closely related subject degree	Higher degree in Computing or closely related subject
QTS qualification (or equivalent)
Evidence of successful Computer Science/ICT teaching across the ability range at KS3 and KS4	Experience of successful leadership of a Computer Science/ICT team or leading of a responsibility
Experience of preparing students in Key Stage 4 for success in GCSE Computer Science/ICT examinations	Experience of post-16 Computer Science/ICT teaching
An excellent practitioner who is enthusiastic about and able to work collaboratively to share best practice

Excellent communication and organisational skills
Systematic about monitoring student progress and creating interventions to improve performance
Willingness to commit to extracurricular activities
Knowledge and understanding of recent developments in Computer Science/ICT education
Able to uphold and strengthen the distinctive ethos of Robert May's School
Fully conversant with Child Protection and Safeguarding procedures in schools	