

Recruiting now – Head of Creative Enterprise for September 2023 or Earlier

Salary: MPR/UPR + TLR2b

Hornsey School for Girls is consistently in the top 20% of schools nationally as recognised by SSAT for the past 5 years.

Pupils enjoy school and are safe. They spoke of the sense of family they get from being in a small school. Relationships between staff and pupils are positive. They reflect respect and kindness, both of which are at the core of this community school's ethos. Ofsted 2022

Right now we are searching for exceptional talent and offering opportunities to be part of something unique.

We have high ambitions for our staff as well as our students. As you will be investing in our young people, we will invest in you.

As well as financial incentives, your career pathway will be developed with you and will include:

- Progression opportunities both internally and externally through our bespoke CPE programme and outstanding links with Ambitions School Leadership, Teach First, East London Consortium and others
- Outstanding mentoring/coaching programme with all staff having access to Lead Practitioner support through our Inspires Team
- Bespoke and individualised programme for ECTs and Teach First participants
- Innovative professional development through our stranded CPE programme for all staffing levels

In addition to this:

- The Creative Enterprise department has an extensive extra-curricular programme and significant STEM links and partnerships
- The department consists of Computer Science, Design and Technology, and Art as separate disciplines as well as a discrete taught STEM curriculum for all KS3 students. Applications from teachers of Computer Science or DT are especially welcome.
- There is a Creative Enterprise specific base area and a supportive SLT
