Teacher of Design and Technology

Responsible to:	Head of Visual and Performing Art
Start date:	April 2026
Salary:	Inner London pay scale and benefits
Deadline:	Friday 13 th February 2026

The Trust reserves the right to interview and appoint a suitable candidate before the closing date. The Trust will consider applicants interested in a full-time position.

We seek to appoint an enthusiastic and innovative Teacher of Design and Technology to join our experienced and successful team. We believe that all pupils have the potential to flourish, through great teaching and providing the right environment and opportunities. Our core values of aspiration, integrity, exploration, and resilience underpin our mission and support our pupils to become happy, independent and confident young people. These drive all aspects of school life, from our high expectations for students, through to exciting opportunities to explore the world around us.

About The Charter School Bermondsey

The Charter School Bermondsey is an Ofsted "Good" (2022), four-form entry, mixed, 11-16 free school that opened in September 2013. The school is in a new state-of-the-art building, just a stone's throw from Bermondsey Underground, and boasts fantastic spaces for staff and students, including modern science laboratories. Our students behave well and achieve progress levels above the National average.

We support our staff with:

- Excellent opportunities for professional development including coaching and NPQs
- Providing a well-ordered working environment including centralised detentions so teachers can focus on teaching
- Regular opportunities for flexible working

The school is a member of The Charter Schools Educational Trust; home to seven Good and Outstanding schools including The Charter School North Dulwich, The Charter School East Dulwich & Charles Dickens Primary School.

Teaching and Learning

- Lead by example as a teacher, achieving high standards of pupil attainment and progress, behaviour and motivation through effective teaching.
- Provide highly effective teaching and learning opportunities within your subject area.
- Take part in activities to monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of teaching and learning within the school, proactively engaging with peer observations and focus upon the raising and maintaining of standards and expectations.
- Create a learning environment that is positive, affirming and supportive.
- Keep up to date with creative and innovative practices in teaching and learning and use as appropriate.

- Contribute to the department programme/curriculum i.e. curriculum, standards, target setting, assessment and reporting.
- Ensure that the students enjoy a safe and healthy environment in which standards of behaviour support learning and the social development of students.
- Develop successful and inclusive approaches to teaching, including supporting students with special educational needs and disabilities and of the more able.
- Provide regular, written feedback in the form of a learning dialogue to students and ensure that they are given opportunities to react and respond to this feedback.

Communication and Partnership

- Communicate school's values, aims, policies and plans to staff, students and parents.
- Create, maintain and enhance effective working relationships with staff.
- Maintain an effective system of record keeping, reporting and communication with stakeholders to ensure accountability for your work.
- Help to ensure that good communications are maintained throughout the school.
- Ensure that parents and students are well informed about curriculum, attainment and progress and can understand targets for improvement.
- Look for and use opportunities to support the development of the whole child through spiritual, moral, social and cultural activities.
- Develop and encourage good relations between the school and the local and wider community.
- Work closely with other schools, locally, nationally and where beneficial, internationally.
- Represent the school at marketing and other external events.

This job description details responsibilities but is not prescriptive and does not direct any priorities or amount of time to be spent carrying out the duties. It is not necessarily a comprehensive definition of the post, and the post holder may be required to undertake other duties and responsibilities commensurate with the grade and scope of the post. This job description may be subject to amendment, to meet the changing needs of the school, following appropriate consultation.
