Introduction

All Unity Schools Partnerships schools embrace a strong set of values which ensure that pupils learn how to take their place in modern Britain. Every member of staff is required to uphold and promote the values of the Trust in every aspect of their work performance.

All members of teaching staff are responsible personally and collectively for supporting students in becoming confident individuals, successful learners and responsible citizens, through:

- Modelling core values of the school and wider Trust at all times;
- Nurturing pupils' passions and interests and stimulating their intellectual curiosity;
- Continuously raising pupils' aspirations and self-esteem;
- Intentionally developing students' Core Learning Skills;
- Contributing to the wider range of opportunities offered by and for the school community;
- Actively supporting and promoting student voice;
- Assuming responsibility (as required) for the learning progress of specific groups of individual pupils;
- Ensuring high outcomes for a cohort of pupils (at least 2 levels of progress each key stage)

All teachers are required to meet the national standards for teachers according to their role.

Core Purpose	• To lead and manage a subject area • To be accountable for student progress and attainment in that subject area • To deputise for the HOF in his/her absence (along with the other HoDs in the faculty) • To make appropriate cover arrangements for classes when staff are absent (in line with written faculty policy)
Curriculum	• To lead, manage and develop student attainment across one subject area in the faculty • To be accountable for the planning, delivery and assessment of the subject at that subject area including the development of syllabi, differentiated resources, Schemes of Work (SOW) and assessment strategies • To keep up to date with national, regional and local developments in the subject area and to actively monitor and respond to them, disseminating the knowledge to the relevant members of staff
Strategic Leadership	• To lead on the implementation and evaluation of the faculty development plan
Quality Assurance	• To support the HOF in carrying out self-evaluation activities as a means of informing faculty practice and identifying areas of development • To monitor student standards and attainment in the subject area against annual targets • To support the HOF in setting annual targets for the subject area • To quality control subject reports
Resources	• To support the HOF in overseeing and evaluating the subject budget allocation to ensure it is spent in line with faculty and SDP priorities and best value principals
Staffing	• To be Performance Manager for a faculty member(s), carrying out performance management reviews in line with school policy and setting challenging objectives • To lead, develop and enhance the teaching practice of the staff delivering the subject • To participate in the recruitment and interview process for members of the faculty
Management Information	• To use data appropriately to set targets and expectations and to ensure effectively differentiated teaching of the subject
Teaching	• To undertake an appropriate programme of teaching of a specialist and secondary subject(s)
School Ethos	• To contribute to the development of whole school policy • To represent the faculty at HOF meetings in the HOFs absence • To attend Middle Leader meetings • To support the school ethos, aims and policies
Whole School Contribution	• To play a full part in the life of the school community, to support its distinctive aims and ethos and to encourage staff and students to follow this example • To continue professional development • To comply with the schools Health and Safety policy • To engage actively in the performance review process • To undertake any other duty as specified by STPCB not mentioned above

This job description is carried out in accordance with provisions of the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions document and within the range of teachers' duties set out in that document.

Each HoD may have specific duties on top of these generic ones.

This job description is current at the date shown but, in consultation with you, may be changed by the Headteacher to reflect or anticipate changes in the job commensurate with the grade and job title.
