Royal Greenwich
Trust School
Learning Today, Leading Tomorrow
PART OF UNIVERSITY SCHOOLS TRUST

Royal Greenwich Trust School, part of the University Schools Trust, is proud to be an inclusive 11-18 school at the heart of our local community.

In 2017, RGTS was established with an initial cohort of year 7 students with a sixth form provision and in 2020 we opened our brand new £14 million wing.

In October 2022, Ofsted judged us to be a GOOD school across all areas within the framework.

"Leaders are ambitious for pupils."

"Behaviour is typically good and well managed. This ensures that pupils feel safe and are kept safe."

"Pupils are expected to work hard and focus on their learning."

"Pupils at Royal Greenwich Trust School enjoy positive and purposeful working relationships with their teachers and other staff."

This appointment presents an exciting opportunity for the right candidate to play a significant role in shaping the future of our learning community within our Creative Arts and Technology Faculty.

University Schools Trust (UST) is a unique partnership of six world-leading universities and three sector-leading bodies who are working together to deliver a shared vision of inclusive, high-quality and transformational education.

We want to hear from you if you are:

- Unrelenting in your pursuit of excellence in all aspects of your practice
- Successful in working with young people and securing the best outcomes for them
- Team spirited and prepared to go above and beyond to get the job done.

Working with us guarantees the opportunity to:

- Be an integral part of a growing school/Trust with potential for career development
- Design and deliver bespoke curriculum provision for students across all key stages
- Develop links with our wider UST network for CPD and collaborative practice.
