

Candidate Application Pack Pioneer Secondary Academy

Head of Humanities

Headteacher welcome

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in joining Pioneer Secondary Academy. We are a school driven by high expectations, academic ambition, and a deep commitment to the personal development of every student.

At the heart of our ethos is our motto: "Mann Jeetay Jagg Jeet" – "Conquer your mind, conquer the world." This philosophy underpins our unwavering focus on excellence in all areas of school life. Our students are respectful, eager to learn, and ambitious for their futures, qualities reflected in our recent Ofsted report, which praised the calm, purposeful environment and strong relationships that define our community.

We set and uphold high standards of behaviour and mutual respect across the school. Our culture is one where every student is known, supported, and expected to contribute positively to our community, allowing learning to flourish in every classroom.

We are proud of the progress we have made and are unapologetically ambitious for our next phase of development. Staff at Pioneer benefit from a supportive leadership team, a culture of professional growth, and a shared commitment to raising standards through high-quality teaching and a strong, well-sequenced curriculum.

As a Sikh ethos school, we promote the values of Respect, Aspiration, Integrity, Seva (selfless service), and Equality, welcoming staff and students of all backgrounds and beliefs to thrive in a culture of inclusion and high achievement.

We look forward to receiving your application and to the possibility of you joining us on our exciting journey of improvement and excellence.

About us

Pioneer Secondary Academy is a vibrant and ambitious school with a strong reputation for academic achievement and personal development. As part of the Sikh Academies Trust, we are rooted in Sikh values but proudly inclusive, welcoming staff and students of all faiths and none.

Our ethos promotes selfless service, respect, equality, and aspiration - values that shape our inclusive and respectful school culture. As a result of our strong values and sustained improvement, we are now an oversubscribed school, reflecting the trust our community places in us.

At Pioneer, we have high expectations for behaviour, learning, and personal conduct. Our RAISE values - Respect, Aspiration, Integrity, Seva, and Equality - underpin everything we do and create a calm, purposeful learning environment.

What Ofsted says

Inspectors praise our “calm and purposeful” atmosphere, strong relationships, and pupils’ positive attitudes to learning. Inspectors commend our welcoming and respectful culture, noting that pupils “live and breathe the school’s values.”

Behaviour is described as exemplary, with pupils showing genuine care and respect for one another, and sixth formers acting as outstanding role models.

Our curriculum is recognised as broad and balanced, with effective support in place for pupils with special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND). Ofsted also praises our strong personal development programme and high-quality careers guidance, which ensure pupils are well-prepared for their next steps. Parents are overwhelmingly positive, highlighting the school’s significant improvements and how happy their children are to attend.

The role

Role: Head of Humanities Faculty

Salary: UPR+TLR (Fringe)

Apply by: Monday 28 April 2025

Start date: September 2025 (or sooner)

You will lead a committed and collaborative team of Geography, History, and Religious Education specialists, driving excellence across the faculty through high expectations, strategic vision, and inspirational leadership. You will model outstanding classroom practice, continuous improvement, and support colleagues to deliver engaging and rigorous lessons across Key Stage 3 and Key Stage 4.

With a focus on raising achievement and fostering a love of the Humanities, you will help shape an ambitious curriculum and promote a strong commitment to academic success. This is an excellent opportunity for a dynamic leader who is passionate about developing others and leading with purpose. You will benefit from high-quality professional development, including tailored CPD and support with relevant NPQ courses to aid your growth within our values-driven, aspirational school.

How to apply

Further information and an application form can be found on our school website www.pioneersecondaryacademy.com/vacancies/ or the Teaching Vacancies site hosted by .gov.uk. To arrange a visit to the school which we encourage, please contact vacancies@sikhacademiestrust.com. Applications will be shortlisted and interviewed at the earliest opportunity and early applications for this post are recommended.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. The successful candidate will be subject to an enhanced DBS record check.

We reserve the right to interview and appoint this position ahead of any advertised application closing date, should an appropriate candidate be found.
