

Head of Psychology/Teacher/Instructor of Psychology
Part time 50% minimum
Teacher/Instructor Pay Scale
Required from September
TLR2

Ormiston Victory Academy is seeking to appoint an enthusiastic and dedicated Teacher of Psychology. The successful applicant will be an outstanding professional who takes pride in their work and is determined to develop the teaching of psychology so that students of all abilities enjoy their learning and are motivated to succeed. Head of Psychology may be offered to candidates with suitable experience and a proven track record.

This position offers a fulfilling opportunity to be part of a successful, friendly and dedicated academy team committed to ensuring every student achieves their true potential.

We are looking for a talented teacher who ideally:

- Has demonstrated achieving strong results in both A'level and GCSE level.
- Has a real love for the subject, with a special gift of communicating that passion.
- Is dynamic, innovative, self-motivated and able to inspire others.
- Has the ability to teach outstanding lessons across the age and ability range.
- Is committed to raising standards of attainment and developing the success of the department.
- Enjoys working as part of a team and demonstrates reflective practice through the high expectations they have of themselves and the students.

We are proud to be sponsored by Ormiston Academies Trust and the successful candidate would benefit from the opportunities which arise as a result of this. The academy incorporates the successful and growing Lord Nelson Sixth Form College. We are delighted to be part of the Ormiston Academies Trust OAKS teacher training facility and we have strong links with the University of East Anglia.

If you are interested in being at the leading edge of education, believe that all young people can achieve high standards; we want to hear from you.

This position would be suitable for either a newly qualified teacher or an experienced teacher. We offer an excellent induction package for all new staff, led by a member of the senior leadership team and supported by personal mentors.

We would encourage candidates to explore our website for more information about Victory Academy and view our virtual tours. We would encourage early application as we may interview sooner.

Closing date for applications: 9:00am on Monday 17th May 2021
Interviews expected to be held by: Wednesday 19th May 2021

If you wish to apply, please email your letter of application and completed application form (available on our website, www.ormistonvictoryacademy.co.uk) to Nicole Hawes, PA to the Principal on n.hawes@ormistonvictoryacademy.co.uk

Ormiston Victory Academy is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful applicant will be required to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service.

Ormiston Victory Academy is an Equal Opportunities Employer. We value diversity and welcome applicants from all sectors of the community.