

Hornsey
School for Girls

FORTIOR·QUO·PARATIOR

The Better Prepared the Stronger

Recruiting now – Head of Social Science for January 2025 or earlier

Salary: MPR/UPR + TLR2b

Hornsey School for Girls is consistently in the top 20% of schools nationally as recognised by SSAT for the past 5 years.

Pupils enjoy school and are safe. They spoke of the sense of family they get from being in a small school. Relationships between staff and pupils are positive. They reflect respect and kindness, both of which are at the core of this community school's ethos. Ofsted 2022

Right now we are searching for exceptional talent and offering opportunities to be part of something unique.

We have high ambitions for our staff as well as our students. As you will be investing in our young people, we will invest in you.

As well as financial incentives, your career pathway will be developed with you and will include:

- Progression opportunities both internally and externally through our bespoke CPE programme and outstanding links with Ambitions School Leadership, East London Consortium and others
- Outstanding mentoring/coaching programme with all staff having access to our Inspires Team
- Bespoke and individualised programme for ECTs
- Innovative professional development through our stranded CPE programme for all staffing levels

In addition to this:

- You will have the opportunity to lead an amazing team
- Social Science results are above the national average
- There is a Social Science specific base and a supportive SLT

Come and realise your ambitions at Hornsey School for Girls.
