

Brereton Church of England Primary School

School Lane, Brereton. CW11 1RN

Part of Chester Diocesan Academies Trust (CDAT)

Appointment of Headteacher

We are looking to appoint a motivated and successful leader to be the next Headteacher of our flourishing school.

Our new Headteacher will have the highest aspirations for our children. They will be a considerate leader and a great communicator, have real leadership skills and a clear vision for excellent Christian education. They will appreciate the benefits of working with a supportive team of staff, governors and parents. They will be committed to the safeguarding and wellbeing of children, staff and the wider school community. As Headteacher, they will also enjoy working closely with other schools within our academy trust, learning from and sharing best practice.

Brereton CE Primary School is a one form entry Church of England primary school situated in the village of Brereton, Sandbach. We enjoy close links with our church, St Oswald's, and the wider community. Our vision is that all who come here will 'love God, love learning and love one another,' as Jesus did.
