January 2022

Dear Applicant

Headteacher – English Martyrs’ Catholic School

Thank you for the interest you have expressed in the above post. This is an excellent opportunity for the appropriately qualified and experienced leader within our CMAT. English Martyrs’ is an excellent school, built on clear faith principles and with a very positive, respectful student culture. The curriculum has developed well, especially over the last couple of years, and outcomes are strong. The school has a very positive local reputation for its provision for pupils with special educational needs, and there is a consistent focus on equality throughout.

The outgoing school principal has been in post for 14 years and has taken the school on a progressive school improvement journey. We now seek the right person to continue this work. As Headteacher, the successful applicant will work closely with the CMAT Director of Performance & Standards and I to shape and develop the direction of the school, and to monitor the impact of all work done.

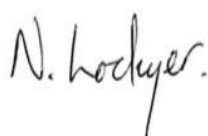

This is a reserved post, meaning that we are looking for someone who meets the definition of a practising Catholic (the details of which are included with this pack). Beyond that, we are seeking someone with a demonstrable track record of evidenced school improvement work; someone who is a genuine team player, and who can show through examples that they are able to take people with them on their strategic journey.

If you feel that this could be the exciting next step on your own career pathway, we would be delighted to receive an application from you. The deadline is 9.00am on Friday 27th January 2022, and interviews are scheduled for 8th & 9th February 2022.

Please contact my PA Jackie Banks (JBanks@aquinas-cmat.org) to arrange a virtual meeting with me to discuss this post further.

Thank you again for your interest in this post. I wish you every success in your application.

Best wishes

Neil Lockyer
Chief Executive Officer

Welcome to St Thomas Aquinas Catholic Multi-Academy Trust

We are a vibrant Trust of 21 schools – 17 primary and 4 secondary – serving young people, their families and parishes across Leicester and Leicestershire. We are proud to work both with our fellow Catholic MATs across the Diocese of Nottingham, and a wide range of other schools and MATs across our city and county.

Our CMAT provides innovative ways for our schools to work together. Children benefit from the expertise of staff from across the schools, and they have increased opportunities to work with young people from other schools also. Training for our staff provides even greater quality in our classrooms, and better value for money means that more resources can be focussed in those classrooms.

We are truly blessed to be a family of schools which, with Christ at the heart of all that we do, shares a common mission to prepare our young people for a wholesome, fulfilling, active life in the future. Our commitment to the parents is to care for, support and educate your child to the highest possible standards.

Working in the Diocese of Nottingham

Thank you for taking the time to find out more about the Headteacher post at English Martyrs' Catholic School in the Diocese of Nottingham.

The Diocese of Nottingham was established on 29 September 1850 covers a wide geographical area comprising the counties of Nottingham, Derby, Leicester, Lincoln and Rutland except the District of Bassetlaw, Nottinghamshire and the area around Chesterfield, Derbyshire which was given to create the Diocese of Hallam in 1980.

There are 84 maintained schools in the Diocese of Nottingham; 69 primary schools and 15 secondary schools. We serve around 30,000 children and young people. Each school is part of one of four Catholic Multi-Academy Trusts which were established on 1 September 2018.

Our Catholic Multi-Academy Trusts work in very close partnership with us at the Nottingham Roman Catholic Diocesan Education Service particularly in terms of promoting the Catholic Life of our schools and providing a range of continuing professional development opportunities.

On behalf of Bishop Patrick McKinney, I would like to thank you once again for your interest in our schools. I do hope that you will consider applying for the post and I wish you every success.

Yours sincerely

Peter Giorgio

Headteacher Job Description

Introduction

English Martyrs' Catholic Academy, a voluntary Academy is a Catholic School and is part of the Catholic Church and is to be conducted as a Catholic school in accordance with Canon Law, the teachings of the Catholic Church and the diocesan trust deed. At all times the school is to serve as a witness to the Catholic faith in Our Lord Jesus Christ. The post is therefore reserved for a practicing Catholic who can show by example and from experience that he or she will ensure that the school is distinctively Catholic in all its aspects.

This job description is based on the key areas identified in the National Standards of Excellence for Headteachers (2015). These standards are in turn built upon the Teaching Standards (2011) which apply to all teachers, including headteachers.

St Thomas Aquinas Catholic Multi-Academy Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. The headteacher must ensure that the highest priority is given to following the guidance and regulations relating to safeguarding and child protection.

A. The Core Purpose of the Headteacher

The core purpose of the headteacher is to provide professional leadership and management of the school. This will promote a secure foundation from which to achieve high standards in all areas of the school's work.

The headteacher, working with the CEO, Trust Board, Local Governing Body and others, is expected to draw on the person, life and teachings of Jesus Christ to create a shared vision and strategic plan, which inspires and motivates students, staff and all other members of the community. The vision should explore Gospel values, core educational values and moral purpose and be inclusive of stakeholders' values and beliefs.

The headteacher must establish high quality education by effectively managing teaching and learning and using personalised learning to realise the potential of all students and staff. Headteachers must establish a culture that promotes excellence, equality and high expectations of all students and staff. This will include ensuring that religious education is in accordance with the teachings, doctrines, discipline and general and particular norms of the Catholic Church.

The headteacher is the leading professional in the school. Accountable to the CEO, Trust Board and Local Governing Body, the headteacher provides vision, leadership and direction for the school and ensures that it is managed and organised to meet its aims and targets. The headteacher, working with others, is responsible for evaluating the school's performance to identify the priorities for continuous improvement and raising standards; ensuring equality of opportunity for all; developing policies and practices; ensuring that resources are efficiently and effectively used to achieve the school's aims and objectives and for the day-to-day management, organisation and administration of the school.

The headteacher, working with and through others, secures the commitment of the wider community to the school by developing and maintaining effective partnerships with, for example, schools, other services and agencies for young people, parishes, the diocese, the local authority, higher education institutions and employers. Through such partnerships and other activities, headteachers play a key role in contributing to the development of the education system as a whole and collaborating with others to raise standards locally.

Drawing on the support provided by members of the school community, the headteacher is responsible for creating a productive learning environment, which is engaging and fulfilling for all students.

B. The Four Domains of Headship

1. Qualities and Knowledge

The strategic direction and development of the school stem from the educational mission of the Church. The headteacher will ensure that his/her leadership demonstrates commitment to promoting and developing the school's distinctive Catholic identity through the search for excellence in all areas of this work.

The headteacher will:

1. Recognise the authority of the bishop in relation to the provision of education in the diocese and work within the school and parish community to create and promote an educational vision and values for the school which take account of the school's Catholic mission and of the diversity, values and experiences of the school and the community it serves.
2. As an employee of St Thomas Aquinas Catholic Multi-Academy Trust, understand that he/she is accountable to the CEO and the wider Trust Board and provide an accurate evaluation of the school's strengths and areas for improvement as required.
3. Hold and articulate clear Catholic values and moral purpose focused on providing a world-class education for the students they serve and reflecting the Catholic foundation of the school.
4. Demonstrate optimistic personal behaviour, positive relationships and attitudes towards their students and staff, and towards parents, governors and members of the local church and wider community.
5. Lead by example, with integrity, creativity, resilience, and clarity, drawing on their scholarship, expertise and skills and that of those around them.
6. Sustain wide, current knowledge and understanding of education and school systems locally, nationally and globally, and pursue continuous professional development that reflects the needs of a Catholic school.
7. Work with political and financial astuteness, within a clear set of principles centred on the school's Catholic vision, ably translating local, national and diocesan policy into the school's context.
8. Communicate compellingly the school's vision and drive the strategic leadership, empowering all students and staff to excel.

2. Students and Staff

In a Catholic school the headteacher leads a learning community rooted in Catholic belief and principles. The search for excellence is given expression in learning and teaching which recognise students' individual worth as made in the image and likeness of God. The headteacher will lead the school community in promoting positive attitudes to learning amongst students and staff, which stem from Christ's vision for humanity.

In accordance with the school's Catholic ethos, the headteacher will:

1. Demand ambitious standards of achievement and attendance for all students, overcoming disadvantage and advancing equality, instilling a strong sense of accountability in staff for the impact of their work on students' outcomes. Ensure high quality personal, social, health education and citizenship in accordance with the teachings and doctrines of the Catholic Church. Ensure quality provision for students' spiritual, moral, social and cultural education in line with the distinctive Catholic nature, purpose and aims of the school.

2. Secure excellent teaching through an analytical understanding of how students learn and of the core features of successful classroom practice and curriculum design, leading to rich curriculum opportunities and students' well-being, taking full account of the school's Catholic foundation.
3. Establish an educational culture of 'open classrooms' as a basis for sharing best practice within and between schools, drawing on and conducting relevant research and robust data analysis.
4. Create an ethos based on Catholic values within which all staff are motivated and supported to develop their own skills and subject knowledge, and to support each other.
5. Identify emerging talents, coaching current and aspiring leaders in a climate where excellence is the standard, leading to clear succession planning. Hold all staff to account for their professional conduct and practice.

3. Systems and Process

In the Catholic school all deployment of staff, finance, material resources, time and energy should promote the common good of the community in accordance with the school's Mission Statement.

In accordance with the school's Catholic ethos, the headteacher will:

1. Ensure that the school's systems, organisation and processes are well-considered, efficient and fit for purpose, upholding the principles of transparency, integrity and probity within the Catholic context and are fully compliant with CES and Trust policies and procedures and statutory requirements. Ensure arrangements for the daily Act of Collective Worship and the spiritual life of the school. Ensure the diocesan policy for Religious Education is fulfilled.
2. Provide a safe, calm and well-ordered environment for all students and staff, focused on safeguarding students and developing their exemplary behaviour in school and in the wider society.
3. Establish rigorous, fair and transparent systems and measures for managing the performance of all staff, addressing any under-performance, supporting staff to improve and valuing excellent practice.
4. Welcome strong governance and actively support the governing body to understand its role and deliver its functions effectively – in particular its functions to set school strategy and hold the headteacher to account for student, staff and financial performance.
5. Exercise strategic, curriculum-led strategic planning to ensure the equitable deployment of budgets and resources, in the best interests of students' achievements, the school's sustainability and its Catholic character.
6. Distribute leadership throughout the organisation, forging teams of colleagues who have distinct roles and responsibilities and hold each other to account for their decision making.

In a Catholic school, the headteacher is responsible for the mission of the school to the local and wider Catholic community and beyond. The headteacher shares responsibility for leadership of the wider educational system and should be aware that school improvement and community development are interdependent.

1. Create an outward-facing school, which works with other schools within the Trust and beyond, organisations and the local community, in a climate of mutual challenge, to champion best practice and secure excellent achievements for all students. Build a school culture and curriculum based on Gospel values, the teaching of Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church, which take account of the richness and diversity of the school's communities.

3. Challenge educational orthodoxies in the best interests of achieving excellence, harnessing the findings of well-evidenced research to frame self-regulating and self-improving schools.

5. In the context of the school's Catholic ethos, model entrepreneurial and innovative approaches to school improvement, leadership and governance, confident of the vital contribution of internal and external accountability.

This is a reserved post which means that applicants must be practising Catholics. Please consult the document produced by the Diocese of Nottingham 'Catholic Schools and the Definition of a Practising Catholic' for further information.

The St Thomas Aquinas Catholic Multi Academy Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS check is required for the successful candidate.
