Fairway Primary School is a vibrant and thriving primary school which provides a safe, caring, happy and friendly environment where all children are recognised for their individual strengths, abilities and talents.

We are looking for a leader who will:

- Inspire and motivate through innovative leadership
- Develop children's learning with passion and commitment
- Demonstrate the ability to foster a nurturing and inclusive school culture where children flourish and mental health and wellbeing have a high priority
- Have high expectations of all children and staff and have a proven track record of improving outcomes
- Create a supportive, inclusive ethos where all members of the community feel valued
- Provide high quality strategic thinking and planning
- Understand our local community and work to maintain positive relationships within it
- Display strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Build positive relationships with all stakeholders
- Have the ability to confidently challenge, inspire and lead staff

We can offer:

- Happy, confident, articulate, polite, enthusiastic children who love to come to school and are eager to learn
- The opportunity to work with an experienced and well established staff team
- A well maintained and stimulating learning environment
- A well-established curriculum
- Highly supportive parents and carers
- Governors committed to continuous improvement, professional development, inclusivity and equal opportunities
- Excellent links with the local community
