

Head Teacher

Job purpose including main duties and responsibilities

In addition to the General Professional duties set out in the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document the following duties are attached to the post of Head Teacher.

Main objectives of the post

The Head Teacher is the second tier professional in the school.

Working with the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and the Governing Body, the Head Teacher is responsible for providing vision, leadership and direction for the continuing improvement of the school.

The Head Teacher is responsible for ensuring that learning and teaching are highly effective and that all pupils achieve their maximum potential by:

- Ensuring all policies and procedures are followed in all Pioneer Schools
- Monitoring across the whole school of planning, marking and progress
- Continuous improvement of teaching and learning under the direction of the CEO
- Taking the lead and raising standards
- Maintaining and improving a structured learning environment/school building
- Ensuring and improving a rigorous and challenging curriculum
- Ensuring equality of opportunities for all
- Ensuring all relevant legislation is complied with
- Maintain positive relationships with parents and carers of pupils
- Taking the lead to ever improving high standards of pupil behaviour
- Tracking performance of all groups of pupils
- Ensure Finance regulations are met
- Performance Management of Senior Leadership Team
- Conduct all PPR's to ensure they are rigorous and have high impact
- Set all school budgets with the CEO and Head of Finance

Qualities and knowledge

1. Promote The Pioneer principle vision and mantra.
2. Hold and articulate clear values and moral purpose, focused on providing a world-class education for the pupils they serve.
3. Demonstrate optimistic personal behaviour, positive relationships and attitudes towards their pupils and staff, and towards parents, governors and members of the local community.
4. Lead by example - with integrity, creativity, resilience, and clarity - drawing on their own scholarship, expertise and skills, and that of those around them.
5. Sustain wide, current knowledge and understanding of education, the curriculum and school systems locally, nationally and globally, and pursue continuous professional development.

6. Work with political and financial astuteness, within a clear set of principles centred on the school's vision, ably translating local and national policy into the school's context.
7. Communicate compellingly the school's vision and drive the strategic leadership, empowering all pupils and staff to excel.

Pupils and staff

1. Create and enforce a clear and rigorous expectation to promote the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.
2. Demand ambitious standards for all pupils, overcoming disadvantage and advancing equality, instilling a strong sense of accountability in staff for the impact of their work on pupils' outcomes.
3. Secure excellent teaching and learning through an analytical understanding of how pupils learn and of the core features of successful classroom practice and curriculum design, leading to rich curriculum opportunities and pupils' well-being.
4. Establish an educational culture of 'open classrooms' as a basis for sharing best practice within and between schools, drawing on and conducting relevant research and robust data analysis.
5. Create a coaching ethos within which all staff are motivated and supported to develop their own skills and subject knowledge, and to support each other.
6. Identify emerging talents, coaching current and aspiring leaders in a climate where excellence is the standard, leading to clear succession planning.
7. Hold all staff to account for their professional conduct and practice.

Systems and Process

1. Ensure that the school's systems, organisation and processes are well considered, efficient and fit for purpose, upholding the principles of transparency, integrity and probity.
2. Provide a safe, calm and well-ordered environment for all pupils and staff, focused on safeguarding pupils and developing their exemplary behaviour in school and in the wider society.
3. Establish rigorous, fair and transparent systems and measures for managing the performance of all staff, addressing any under-performance, supporting staff to improve and valuing excellent practice.
4. Welcome strong governance and actively support the governing board to understand its role and deliver its functions effectively – in particular its functions to set school strategy and hold the head teacher to account for pupil, staff and financial performance.
5. Distribute leadership throughout the organisation, forging teams of colleagues who have distinct roles and responsibilities and hold each other to account for their decision making.
6. Manage and organise accommodation efficiently and effectively to ensure that all school buildings meet the needs of the curriculum and health and safety regulations.
7. Exercise strategic, curriculum-led financial planning to ensure the equitable deployment of budgets and resources, in the best interests of pupils' achievements and the school's sustainability.
8. Manage the schools' financial and human resources effectively and efficiently to achieve the schools' educational goals and priorities, and ensure systems are in place for the effective administration and control of school budgets.
9. Hold weekly meetings with Finance staff.

10. Effectively manage each school strategically within the partnership's human, financial and physical resources.

Self-improving school system

1. Create outward-facing schools which work with other schools and organisations - in a climate of mutual challenge - to champion best practice and secure excellent achievements for all pupils.
2. Develop effective relationships with fellow professionals and colleagues in other public services to improve academic and social outcomes for all pupils.
3. Shape the current and future quality of the teaching profession through high quality training and sustained professional development for all staff.
4. Inspire and influence others - within and beyond schools - to believe in the fundamental importance of education in young people's lives and to promote the value of education.

Key Accountabilities

1. Take responsibility for Child Protection as 'Child Protection Officer'.
2. Work in partnership with the CEO.
3. Identify colleagues' professional needs as well as administer and manage performance management for a team in the school.
4. Contribute to a clear and soundly based educational vision, ethos and direction that promote and support pupil's learning and their spiritual, moral, social and cultural development.
5. Give support and guidance to all staff in the execution of their duties.
6. Support the school's policy explaining The Pioneer Academy aims, encouraging and influencing and supporting successful working relationships.
7. Share responsibility for whole staff planning.
8. Meet as arranged and / or as necessary with the CEO
9. Organise and coordinate the school on a daily basis.
10. Participate in weekly (or more frequent if necessary) minuted meetings of the Leadership Team.
11. Contribute to meetings of the Governing Body – write termly reports.
12. Participate/contribute to sub- committees of the Governing Body
13. Represent the CEO as required at Governing Body meetings
14. Lead meetings of the Leadership team, the Governing Body and any other operational and/or strategic meetings.
15. Take responsibility for daily discipline, sanctions and behaviour management in the school.
16. Act as the key coordinating professional in the event of the fire alarm being sounded.
17. Coordinate fixed and permanent exclusions including the organisation of disciplinary and appeal hearings in partnership with the Governing Body (with reference to the CEO).
18. Manage the upkeep and maintenance of the site on a day to day basis in partnership with the Premises Officer/Caretakers.
19. Coordinate, administer and the enactment of the Monitoring, Evaluation and Review Schedule.
