Welcome Letter

Dear Prospective Headteacher

Thank you for your interest in the position of Headteacher at Holy Innocents Catholic Primary School.

We are a single form entry primary school which also operates a thriving preschool for children from the age of 2 years. It is a successful, thriving school with deep roots in the local catholic community with strong connections with the local parish with which we share a name. Our academic standards are consistently considered good and we place equal importance on providing a safe, caring community with the catholic faith at its core.

Our vision is to foster an enthusiasm for learning, enabling pupils to be creative, independent and resilient, whilst celebrating their unique talents and gifts, within a Catholic environment that creates committed young disciples understanding their role in the local and global community.

We have recently become part of the St Oscar Romero Catholic Academy Trust with whom we share common aims and the desire to create a learning environment:-

based on love and a sense of welcome, belonging, smiles and kindness where teaching and learning is exciting, inspiring, aspirational and challenging, encouraging risk-taking and creativity where mutual respect, inclusion and a sense of purpose are the daily experience where all understand the school values and have the courage and confidence to live them every day where Catholic Social Teaching is at the heart of all decision-making.

We look forward to receiving your application and please feel free to contact us if you have any queries or questions.

Welcome to ST OSCAR ROMERO CATHOLIC ACADEMY TRUST

Sponsored by the Archdiocese of Southwark, the development of our Trust is key to our Archbishop's education strategy for the future.

Our focus is on enhancing the opportunities that Trust membership delivers to each distinctive school community. Through collaboration, partnership, support and challenge we strengthen the capacity of individual schools to act as beacons of learning and love.

I am honoured to have the privilege to serve our school communities and work alongside such dedicated and inspiring school staff.

As a group of schools we are on an exciting journey. A journey that has as its goal our determination to provide the young people in our schools with the very best that Catholic education has to offer. I believe that the scope of our mission and the opportunities that we will be able to provide for our schools, staff and the young people we serve, is only limited by our imagination. Our schools are already driven by a passion to do their very best for the children and young people in their care. Every day and every lesson each member of staff strives to add value to our schools to ensure they are vibrant, exciting, welcoming places for your children to learn and grow.

The Trust's commitment to the parents of the young people in our schools is that guided by the teachings of Christ and His Church, we will care for, support and educate your children to the highest possible standards.

Holy Innocents Catholic Primary

Number on roll: 275 / Capacity: 270

Ofsted Rated: Good (May 2023)

Holy Innocents Catholic Primary is a friendly and inclusive primary school in the Archdiocese of Southwark. We have a strong Catholic ethos with the aim of helping our students deepen their faith and grow in the love of God. As part of St Oscar Romero Catholic Academy Trust, we have a shared goal of providing outstanding Catholic education for the children and young people in our care.

We are looking for an enthusiastic and innovative school leader who has the drive and strategic vision to build upon the success of our school. A practising Catholic, our new Headteacher will develop strong relationships with the parish and wider school community whilst further strengthening the involvement of parents, carers and other stakeholders in the school's work. The successful candidate will have high expectations of all our pupils, driving academic excellence whilst also nurturing those special gifts which make each child unique.

In addition, our new Headteacher will:

- Be committed to the aims and ethos of St Oscar Romero and play a lead role further developing its growth
- Welcome the contribution of staff and develop leadership throughout the school
- Cater for the individual needs and development of each child, enabling them to become happy and responsible adults

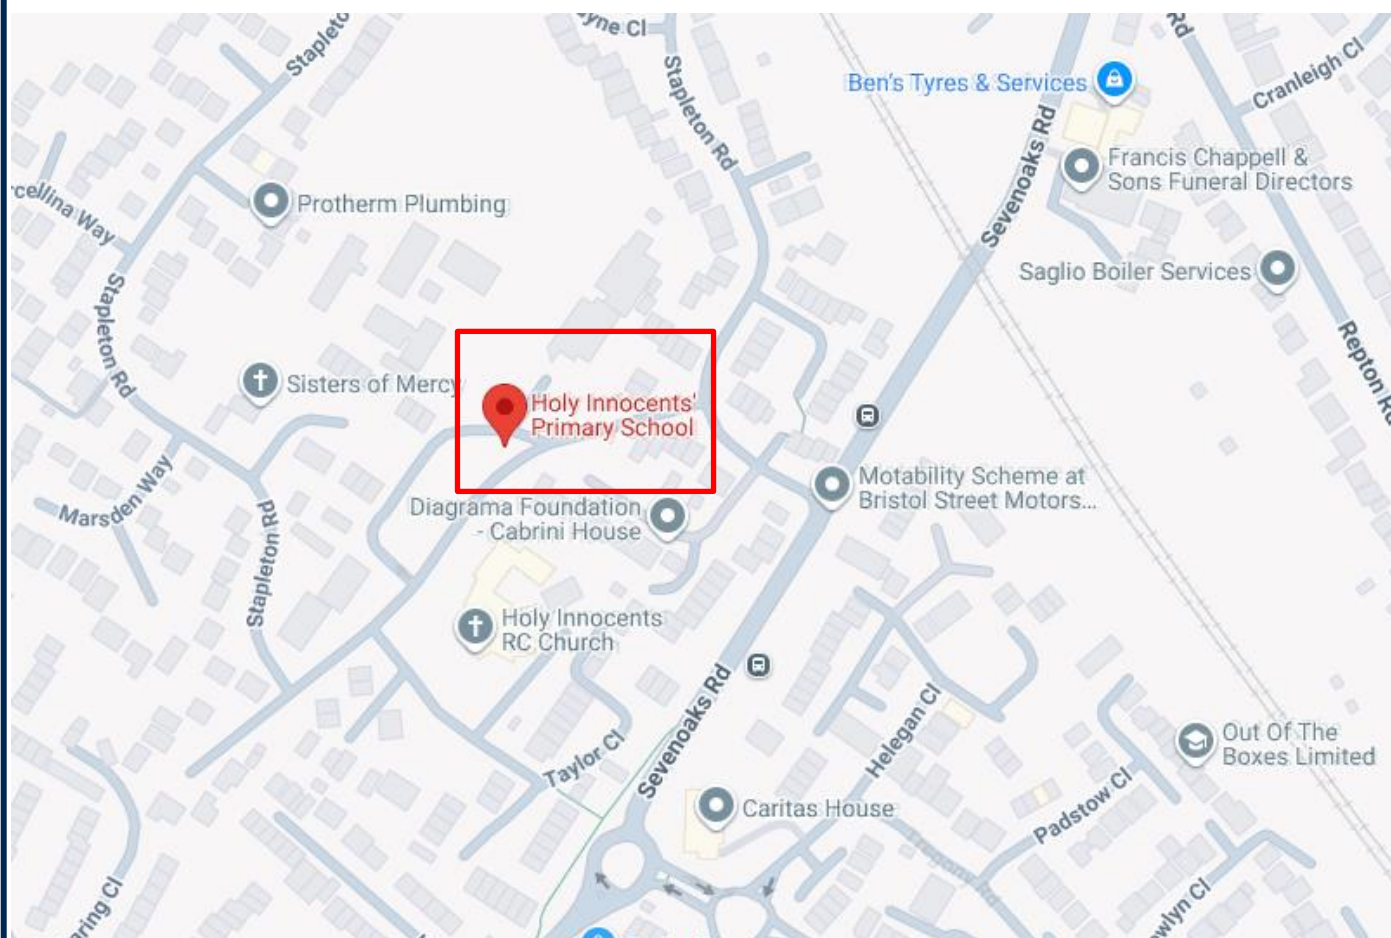

In return, we can offer you the opportunity to:

- Lead a team of highly skilled staff all of whom are passionate about working in a caring Christian atmosphere
- Work with supportive parents and our well-behaved and supportive pupils
- Develop the school's strategy and vision alongside a supportive and effective governing body that is committed to your continued professional development

At Holy Innocents Catholic Primary we actively embrace new ideas and constantly look to develop and improve. We are looking for that exceptional person who is ready to make their mark and lead our school into the future. If you are ready for the challenge then we would love to hear from you.

Visits to the school are strongly encouraged.

St Oscar Romero Catholic Academy Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all our staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We require the successful applicant to undertake an enhanced criminal records check via the Disclosure & Barring Service.

Headteacher job description

Reporting to the CEO, the main purposes of the role are:

- To promote the Catholic ethos of the school.
- To provide professional leadership for the school within a Catholic context to secure its success and improvement.
- To ensure high quality education for all pupils and good standards of learning and achievement.

MAIN TASKS

1. Strategic direction and development of the school

- Provide inspiring and purposeful leadership for the staff and pupils, within a Catholic context.
- To work in partnership with the governing body, staff and parents, generating the ethos and values which will underpin the school.
- To continue to implement a Development Plan to secure continuous school improvement.
- To monitor and evaluate the performance of the school and respond and report to the governing body as required.
- To ensure that management, finances, organisation and administration of the school supports its vision and aims.
- To ensure that school policies and practices take account of national, local and school requirements.
- To monitor, evaluate and review the impact of policies, priorities and targets of the school in practice, and take action if necessary.
- To ensure that all those involved in the school are committed to its aims; motivated to achieve them; and involved in meeting long, medium and short term objectives and targets which secure the educational success of the school.
- To play an active role in the development of SELCAT.

2. Teaching and learning

- To continue to promote the Catholic ethos of the school.
- Continue to maintain an environment that promotes and secures good teaching, effective learning, high standards of achievement and good behaviour.
- Determine, organise, implement and monitor the curriculum and its assessment and ensure that statutory requirements are met.
- Ensure that pupils develop study skills in order to learn more effectively and with increasing independence.
- Determine, organise and implement a policy for the personal, social and moral development of pupils.
- Monitor and evaluate the quality of teaching and learning and standards of achievement of all pupils in the school through appropriate methods.
- Determine and implement policies which promote:
  - positive strategies for developing good race relations and dealing with racial incidents.
  - Equality of access.
  - Determine and implement positive strategies and programmes which ensure good pupil behaviour and discipline and give support and clear guidance on exclusions.
- Develop and maintain effective links with the community including business and industry, to extend the curriculum and enhance teaching and learning.
- Continue to maintain an effective partnership with parents and the wider community to support and improve pupils' achievement and personal development.
- Promote extra curricular activities in accordance with the educational aims of the school.

3. Leading and managing staff

- To promote Catholic leadership and the aims of the school.
- Plan, allocate, support and evaluate work undertaken by groups, teams and individuals, ensuring clear delegation of tasks and devolution of responsibilities in a manner consistent with conditions of employment.

- Implement and sustain effective systems for the management of staff performance, incorporating performance management and target setting.
- Promote and monitor the continuing professional development of staff, including the induction of newly qualified teachers.
- Ensure that professional duties are fulfilled, as specified in the Terms and Conditions of Service of teachers, including those of Headteacher.
- Participate in the arrangements made in accordance with the regulations for performance management and threshold assessment, and to participate in the identification of areas in which the Head would benefit from further training and undergoing such training.
- Ensure that a suitable person from the School Leadership Team assumes responsibility for the discharge of the Headteacher's function at any time when absent from school.
- Continue the development of good working relationships with governors, staff, pupils, parents/carers and the community.

4. Efficient and effective deployment of staff and resources

- Work with governors and senior colleagues to recruit and retain staff of the highest quality in line with the Catholic ethos of the school.
- Make arrangements for the security and effective supervision of the school buildings, their contents and the grounds.
- Set appropriate priorities for expenditure, allocation of funds and effective administration and control.
- Manage and organise the accommodation efficiently and effectively to ensure it meets the needs of the curriculum, community use and health and safety regulations.
- Work with colleagues to deploy and develop all staff effectively in order to maintain and improve the quality of education provided.
- Manage, monitor and review the range, quality and use of all available resources in order to improve the quality of education, improve pupils' achievements, ensure efficiency and secure value for money.

5. SEND

- To ensure the school holds ambitious expectations for all pupils with additional and special educational needs and disabilities in light of the principles of Catholic Social Teaching
- To ensure the school works effectively in partnership with parents, carers, parish and professionals, to identify the needs of SEND children, providing support and adaptation where required.
- To ensure that the school fulfils its statutory duties with regards to the SEND code of practice.

6. Accountability

- Continue to develop an organisation in which all the staff recognise that they are accountable for the success of the school and the Catholic ethos.
- Present a coherent and accurate account of the school's performance in a form appropriate to the range of audiences, including governors, SELCAT, the diocese, the local community, Ofsted and others to enable them to play their part effectively.
- Ensure that parents/carers and pupils are well informed about the curriculum, attainment and progress and about the contribution they can make in supporting their child's learning and achieving the school's targets for improvement.
- Provide information, objective advice and support to the Governing Body to enable it to meet its responsibilities for securing effective teaching and learning and improved standards of achievement, and for achieving efficiency and value for money.
- Carry out any such duties as may be reasonably required by the CEO.

Safeguarding Children & Safer Recruitment

This school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people as required under the Education Act 2002 and the Keeping Children Safe in Education document and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Actions

The Headteacher should ensure that:

- The policies and procedures adopted by the governing body are fully implemented and followed by all staff.
- Sufficient resources and time are allocated to enable the designated person and other staff to discharge their responsibilities, including taking part in strategy discussions and other inter-agency meetings, and contributing to the assessment of children.
- All staff and volunteers feel able to raise concerns about poor or unsafe practice in regard to children, and such concerns are addressed sensitively and effectively in a timely manner in accordance with agreed whistle blowing practices.

This job description forms part of the contract of employment of the person appointed to this post. It reflects the position at the present time only and may be reviewed in negotiation with the employee in the future.

The appointment is subject to the current conditions of employment in the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions as they relate to Headteachers.

Ethics and Professional Conduct.

Catholic Headteachers are expected to demonstrate consistently high standards of principled and professional conduct, inspired by Christ and demonstrate the qualities of character, fundamental to the Catholic tradition: faith, hope, love, justice, solidarity temperance, fortitude and practical wisdom. A Catholic Headteacher is expected to meet the teachers' standards and be responsible for providing the conditions in which teachers can fulfil them.

In addition, a Catholic headteacher upholds and demonstrated the Seven Principles of Public Life, at all times. Known as the Nolan principles, these form the basis of the ethical standards expected of public office holders:

- Selflessness
- Integrity
- Objectivity
- Accountability
- Openness
- Honesty
- Leadership

A Catholic Headteacher is the custodian of a Catholic school and as such embodies the abundant hope of the Church has placed in education. A Catholic Headteacher is entrusted with the task of human formation in conformity with Christ and Church teaching, maintaining high standards of ethics and behaviour, both within and outside school.

A Catholic Headteacher:

- Builds relationships of mutual respect, rooted in the belief that all are made in the image and likeness of God and observe proper boundaries appropriate to their professional position.
- Will show tolerance and respect for the rights of others, recognising differences and respecting cultural diversity within contemporary society, enabling each person to play their full part in building and sustaining the Common Good.
- Will uphold British values, including democracy, rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs understanding that such values are rooted in the Catholic understanding of dialogue and Catholic Social Teaching.
