Dear Colleague,

Thank you for your interest in the post of Headteacher at Chapel-en-le-Frith CofE VC Primary School.

We are a large, welcoming primary school at the heart of our Derbyshire community in the Peak District, educating children from Nursery through to Year 6. Our Christian ethos underpins all that we do and is lived out through our strong commitment to inclusion, care, respect and high expectations for every child. We value the individuality of our pupils and work hard to ensure that all children, whatever their starting points or needs, are supported to thrive academically, socially and emotionally.

A key strength of our school is our Enhanced Resource Provision, which plays an important role within the school and the wider local authority offer. Inclusion is not viewed as an add-on at Chapel-en-le-Frith Primary School; it is central to our identity and culture. Staff work collaboratively to ensure that children accessing the Enhanced Resource Provision are fully included in the life of the school, and that high-quality, specialist support sits alongside strong classroom practice. We are proud of the inclusive ethos that this creates for all pupils.

Our most recent Ofsted inspection judged the school to be 'Good', recognising the positive culture we have established, the strong relationships across the school community, and the shared commitment of leaders and staff to continual improvement. Pupils feel safe and enjoy learning within a broad and ambitious curriculum. Governors take seriously their responsibility to support and challenge school leaders in sustaining and strengthening this work. In addition, our recent SIAMS inspection affirmed the strength of our Christian vision and the way it supports inclusion, wellbeing and the flourishing of all pupils and adults. Governors take seriously their responsibility to support and challenge school leaders in sustaining and strengthening this work.

As we look ahead, we are seeking a Headteacher who will build confidently on our existing strengths while providing clear, strategic leadership for the next stage of the school's journey. The successful candidate will be someone who shares our values, champions inclusive practice and understands the importance of leading a school with both mainstream and enhanced provision. They will bring warmth, clarity and purpose to the role, with high expectations for teaching and learning and a strong commitment to pupil wellbeing.
