Letter from Chair of Governors and CEO

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for the interest you have expressed in the Headship vacancy at Pikemere School following the promotion of the current Headteacher. Pikemere School is now looking for an ambitious leader to embed our ethos and build on the successes already made.

Pikemere School is a one form entry school which prides itself on a family environment in which all children can feel secure and be known as individuals each with their own strengths, talents and special interests. Staff are hardworking and fully committed to the ethos, vision and values of the school. Our parent community has high expectations of us, and rightly so. Governors provide high levels of support and challenge, holding us to account for the quality of education on offer.

Pikemere School is situated in a quiet, private residential area of Cheshire and has the benefit of three acres of land providing excellent educational and recreational opportunities for the pupils. The school was opened in 1968 and is housed in a comfortable building providing classroom space for eight age groups along with sufficient space for additional needs to be met for individuals or groups.

Chancery MAT

Pikemere chose to become an academy in 2018, and since becoming part of Chancery Multi Academy Trust, we are focussed on building stronger mutual relationships so that all the schools benefit from supportive, constructive and challenging interactions. For more information about Chancery please visit the Trust website which can be found here.

We look forward to receiving your application.

Mrs K Hulson

Chair of Governors

Mrs S.L. Gohr

CEO

Application and Selection Process and Schedule

Due to the promotion of the substantive Headteacher, the Local Governing Board of Pikemere School are seeking a dedicated, self-motivated, inspirational and talented Headteacher from April 2022 who will build on the hard work already undertaken.

In our school:

- Every child is known and cared for as an individual
- We offer an environment that nurtures a love of learning and challenges everyone to excel
- We develop individual talent and celebrate success in all aspects of school life
- Children and staff have high expectations and take pride in their achievements
- We have a staff team who are proud to work at the school and focus on providing excellent education and bringing out the best in each and every child

We are looking for applicants who have:

- A proven track record of successful and varied experience working in leadership
- The passion to focus relentlessly on what's best for every child within our school
- The ability to further develop excellent educational provision that results in outstanding outcomes
- A partnership focus, working collaboratively within our school and trust leadership team
- A commitment to strategic thinking and planning to ensure the best achievement for each child
- Values and ethos in line with our school and trust acting as a role model for all in our school community

We can offer you:

- A commitment to your own professional development through regular coaching and mentoring
- A caring and positive environment with motivated children and staff
- A supportive Governing Board and Trust Leadership Team

Salary L14-18 (£58,135 - £64,143)

Visits to the school are warmly welcomed and should be arranged by contacting Jenny Whiston (Governance and Compliance Lead) at jwhiston@chancerytrust.co.uk who will coordinate with the CEO.

Headteacher Role and Job Specification

The Headteacher is the leader of Pikemere School.

Working with Governors and Chancery Central Team members, they are expected to uphold and demonstrate The Seven Principles of Public Life and fulfil the duties outlined in the Headteacher Standards:

Both within and outside school, headteachers:

- build relationships rooted in mutual respect, and at all times observe proper boundaries appropriate to their professional position
- show tolerance of and respect for the rights of others, recognising differences and respecting cultural diversity within contemporary Britain
- uphold fundamental British values^[footnote 3], including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs
- ensure that personal beliefs are not expressed in ways which exploit their position, pupils' vulnerability or might lead pupils to break the law

As leaders of their school community and profession, headteachers:

- serve in the best interests of the school's pupils
- conduct themselves in a manner compatible with their influential position in society by behaving ethically, fulfilling their professional responsibilities and modelling the behaviour of a good citizen^[footnote 4]
- uphold their obligation to give account and accept responsibility
- know, understand, and act within the statutory frameworks which set out their professional duties and responsibilities
- take responsibility for their own continued professional development, engaging critically with educational research
- make a positive contribution to the wider education system

Section 2: Headteachers' standards

1. School culture

Headteachers:

- establish and sustain the school's ethos and strategic direction in partnership with those responsible for governance and through consultation with the school community
- create a culture where pupils experience a positive and enriching school life
- uphold ambitious educational standards which prepare pupils from all backgrounds for their next phase of education and life
- promote positive and respectful relationships across the school community and a safe, orderly and inclusive environment
- ensure a culture of high staff professionalism

2. Teaching

Headteachers:

- establish and sustain high-quality, expert teaching across all subjects and phases, built on an evidence-informed understanding of effective teaching and how pupils learn
- ensure teaching is underpinned by high levels of subject expertise and approaches which respect the distinct nature of subject disciplines or specialist domains
- ensure effective use is made of formative assessment

3. Curriculum and assessment

Headteachers:

- ensure a broad, structured and coherent curriculum entitlement which sets out the knowledge, skills and values that will be taught
- establish effective curricular leadership, developing subject leaders with high levels of relevant expertise with access to professional networks and communities
- ensure that all pupils are taught to read through the provision of evidence-informed approaches to reading, particularly the use of systematic synthetic phonics in schools that teach early reading
- ensure valid, reliable and proportionate approaches are used when assessing pupils' knowledge and understanding of the curriculum

4. Behaviour

Headteachers:

- establish and sustain high expectations of behaviour for all pupils, built upon relationships, rules and routines, which are understood clearly by all staff and pupils
- ensure high standards of pupil behaviour and courteous conduct in accordance with the school's behaviour policy
- implement consistent, fair and respectful approaches to managing behaviour
- ensure that adults within the school model and teach the behaviour of a good citizen

5. Additional and special educational needs and disabilities

Headteachers:

- ensure the school holds ambitious expectations for all pupils with additional and special educational needs and disabilities

- ensure the school works effectively in partnership with parents, carers and professionals, to identify the additional needs^{[\[footnote 9\]](#)} and special educational needs and disabilities^{[\[footnote 10\]](#)} of pupils, providing support and adaptation where appropriate
- ensure the school fulfils its statutory duties with regard to the SEND code of practice

6. Professional development

Headteachers:

- ensure staff have access to high-quality, sustained professional development opportunities, aligned to balance the priorities of whole-school improvement, team and individual needs
- prioritise the professional development of staff, ensuring effective planning, delivery and evaluation which is consistent with the approaches laid out in the standard for teachers' professional development
- ensure that professional development opportunities draw on expert provision from beyond the school, as well as within it, including nationally recognised career and professional frameworks and programmes to build capacity and support succession planning

7. Organisational management

Headteachers:

- ensure the protection and safety of pupils and staff through effective approaches to safeguarding^{[\[footnote 11\]](#)}, as part of the duty of care^{[\[footnote 1\]](#)}

- prioritise and allocate financial resources appropriately, ensuring efficiency, effectiveness and probity in the use of public funds
- ensure staff are deployed and managed well with due attention paid to workload
- establish and oversee systems, processes and policies that enable the school to operate effectively and efficiently
- ensure rigorous approaches to identifying, managing and mitigating risk

8. Continuous school improvement

Headteachers:

- make use of effective and proportional processes of evaluation to identify and analyse complex or persistent problems and barriers which limit school effectiveness, and identify priority areas for improvement
- develop appropriate evidence-informed strategies for improvement as part of well-targeted plans which are realistic, timely, appropriately sequenced and suited to the school's context
- ensure careful and effective implementation of improvement strategies, which lead to sustained school improvement over time

9. Working in partnership

Headteachers:

- forge constructive relationships beyond the school, working in partnership with parents, carers and the local community
- commit their school to work successfully with other schools and organisations in a climate of mutual challenge and support
- establish and maintain working relationships with fellow professionals and colleagues across other public services to improve educational outcomes for all pupils

10. Governance and accountability

Headteachers:

- understand and welcome the role of effective governance, upholding their obligation to give account and accept responsibility
- establish and sustain professional working relationship with those responsible for governance
