How Does the Wider Trust Support?

Services Within Each Function

One of the most important roles of our Trust is to provide schools and leaders with strong, reliable support in the areas that take time and energy away from teaching and learning. Finance, estates, HR, compliance, and IT are delivered centrally by specialist partners. These services including everything from safer recruitment and employee wellbeing to capital projects, budgeting, audits, and digital systems such as Arbor MIS. We have invested heavily in our technical infrastructure, including teacher device refreshes and stronger cybersecurity, ensuring that schools have the tools and systems they need to focus on pupils.

Specific Performance-Related Support

Alongside these operational functions, we continue to build a clear model for school improvement. A Regional Improvement Officer (RPO) works closely with our primary schools, helping to shape priorities, track progress, and offer challenge and support. They are part of a wider Performance Team, led by the Chief Performance Officer, which oversees leadership development, standards, and review.

Schools are also supported by a curriculum-wide team of subject specialists who work directly with leaders and teachers to strengthen curriculum design, improve pedagogy, and bring greater consistency to classroom practice. To compliment this, colleagues at all levels can access Professional Learning Networks (PLNs). These include dedicated Headteacher PLNs as well as extensive subject and phase networks. They provide space for collaboration, peer support, and sharing of practice – helping leaders and teachers learn together and from one another.

Key Trust Outcomes

As a Trust, we remain rooted in mission and committed to impact. We know there is more to do, but we are beginning to see signs of progress: stronger outcomes in some areas, improved attendance, better behaviour, and growing leadership capacity. Each of these improvements is the result of steady, determined effort across our schools. More importantly, each reflects the difference being made to the lives of children and young people – especially the most vulnerable.

Our mission, “Make Christ Known, Make Lives Better”, continues to guide our work. By joining STOCCAT, Headteachers and their schools become part of a family of Catholic communities, united by faith, professional learning, and a shared ambition: to ensure every child achieves their God-given potential
