"If we follow Jesus the world will follow us!"

HEADTEACHER

Required from September 2022

Full Time - Permanent - L15 to L21

Due to the resignation of our present Headteacher, the Governors, Children and Staff are looking to appoint an inspirational and caring leader to guide our school into the next phase of our journey by building on the firm foundations already established.

We can offer you:

- Happy, thoughtful and respectful children who are keen to learn.
- Excellent relationship with parents.
- Governors who provide challenge and support.
- Strong parish and community links.

We are looking for a Headteacher who will:

- Enable every child to realise their full potential.
- Have a strong Catholic faith and a clear understanding of leadership in a Catholic School.
- Be enthused to work within an inclusive environment, which provides a broad and rich curriculum for every pupil.
- Move the school forward from strength to strength.
- Nurture the strong, caring ethos of our school.
- Inspire, challenge and motivate staff.
- Be committed to continual professional development.
- See our school as part of our parish and wider community.

Visits to our school are welcomed and encouraged. We look forward to meeting you and showing you how proud we are of our school. Please call our school office on 0161 483 2431 to book an appointment in the week beginning 10th January.

Completed applications should be returned via email to sue.jenkinson@dioceseofshrewsbury.org

Further information regarding the school can be found on the school website www.st-peters.stockport.sch.uk

Closing Date for applications: 21st January 2022 at 10am
