Ready, Respectful, Safe

Headteacher Vacancy

At Walwayne Court we believe that the essential prerequisites for learning and creativity to happen are happiness and wellbeing; that everybody should have the opportunity to develop skills, knowledge, mindset and confidence with a smile on their face; and that if our whole school loves what they are doing, it will follow that our children, colleagues and community will achieve their full potential.

Walwayne Court Primary School in Trowbridge, a sought-after school with 'Good' Ofsted rating, is looking for an energetic and enthusiastic Headteacher to continue and develop its high standards of education in a welcoming, inspiring and supportive environment.

The Board of Governors invites applications from exceptional leaders with a proven track record of leadership and management, who can demonstrate the skills to:

- Strategically lead and manage a thriving school, ensuring high quality education for all of its pupils;
- Inspire, lead and support a highly skilled and professional teaching staff who are committed to continually improving their approach to teaching, learning and assessment;
- Build positive relationships with the school's stakeholders: pupils, all staff, governors, parents, and outside agencies;
- Assess, monitor and evaluate a stimulating, broad and balanced curriculum that is flexible and inclusive, including the use of technology for blended learning, particularly under current circumstances;
- Develop and implement a vision and development plan using robust strategies to successfully develop and improve an already thriving school in challenging times;
- Collaborate with a team of dedicated, hard-working governors who aim to support the Headteacher's work and to monitor the school's progress.
