

Job Description Teachers and Support Staff

Role:	HIGHER LEVEL TEACHING ASSISTANT
School:	Beckfoot Oakbank
Salary/Grade:	BAND 8 – SCP 17 TO 22
Reporting to:	SENCO

Core Purpose of the Post:

To complement, appreciate and support the role of teachers and other professionals by undertaking work/care/support programmes which enables access to learning in the community as part of a teacher planned approach.

To support the class teacher in the management of pupils in the classroom, and other senior staff on a range of teaching and learning experiences which deliver an appropriately differentiated and suitably challenging creative curriculum for all pupils whilst meeting statutory requirements.

Progressing pupil learning in a range of classroom settings; including working with individuals, groups of pupils or whole classes where the assigned teacher is not present (e.g. during PPA time or covering short term absence). This may involve planning, preparing and delivering learning activities as well as monitoring pupils, assessing, recording and reporting on pupil achievement, progress and development.

Work within school policies and procedures under the direction and guidance of senior staff and within an agreed system of supervision.

This role involves engaging with students in regulated activity relevant to children.

May from time to time be required to undertake other duties commensurate with the grade and level of responsibility defined in this job description.

Main Duties and responsibilities:

- To take responsibility for the implementation of learning activities/work programmes under an agreed system of supervision with individuals/groups, in or out of the learning environment. This will include assisting the teacher in the whole planning cycle and the management/preparation of tasks/resources.
- Assist in the management of pupils in the learning environment.
- Assist the teacher in all aspects of lesson planning and planning of other learning activities, participating in all stages of the planning cycle and modify methods to meet individual/group needs; assessing, evaluating and adjusting lessons/work plans as appropriate and in accordance to pupil responses/needs whilst helping pupils to access learning activities through specialist support.
- Perform allocated tasks with limited supervision using professional discretion where required.
- Will transfer work and resources back to the teacher and feedback any issues.
- As agreed, and with limited supervision, deliver a range of teaching and learning experiences which should be appropriately differentiated and suitably challenging, ensuring all children are engaged in appropriate activities; giving support where necessary.
- Will undertake routine marking of pupils work and accurately record achievement/progress, administer and assess routine tests and invigilate exams/tests as well as working with the teachers to evaluate students progress.
- Support the teacher in establishing, planning, adapting and undertaking structured and agreed learning activities/teaching programmes appropriate to the pupil's needs to ensure physical, social, emotional and intellectual development, taking into account diversity e.g. language, culture, ability, race and religion.
- Will recognise own strengths and areas of expertise and use these to advise and support colleagues in order to ensure the smooth running of the learning environment and contribute to relevant meetings.
- Will supervise and support pupils consistently at all times including those with special needs; recognising and responding to their individual needs whilst ensuring their safety and education in the learning environment.
- Assess the needs of pupils and use detailed specialist skills in the development and implementation of Individual Education Plans and Personal Care Programmes; attending to the pupils' personal needs and maintaining related personal programmes with the correct use of care materials including the safety and well-being of the pupils, therapy and medical intervention needs of the pupil and first aid, paying attention to social, health, physical and welfare matters as well as high standards of cleanliness and hygiene e.g. washing, dressing, toileting, and, if applicable, mobility.

- For posts working with pupils who are physically less able, it may be necessary to be able to physically assist the pupil in line with school policies and good practice.
- Will teach and supervise whole classes during the short term absence of the teacher and undertake the planning for this supervision within the pre-determined lesson framework; keeping all children engaged, maintain good order and to keep pupils on task.
- Promote and reinforce the inclusion, acceptance and integration of all pupils, including those with specific and special needs and those from different cultures and/or with a different first language as appropriate.
- Set challenging and demanding expectations, employ strategies to recognise and reward achievement of self-reliance whilst promoting self-esteem. Encourage pupils to act independently, working co-operatively and interacting with others.
- Will develop, organise, prepare, create, safely manage and maintain a purposeful, orderly and supportive learning environment to meet the lesson plans. Take responsibility for the care, preparation, maintenance and use of relevant equipment, assisting pupils in its use, clearing/storage afterwards and sourcing/suggesting new resources where needed.
- Will be aware of pupil progress, monitor/record pupil responses against pre-determined learning objectives as well as provide accurate, constructive and detailed feedback/reports to the teacher and pupils. Make suggestions on developing areas where required.
- In liaison with the class teacher, will establish constructive relationships and communicate with other agencies and professionals to support achievement and progress of pupils.
- Will contribute to the planning of opportunities for students to learn outside of school contexts in line with school policies and procedures.
- Promote positive values, attitudes and good pupil behavior and encourage pupils to take responsibility for their own actions whilst supporting the teacher in managing this. Deal promptly with conflict and incidents (including those involving restraint) and reporting challenging behavior where appropriate in line with established policy; developing new solutions where required and contribute to a purposeful learning environment.
- Will gather/report information from/to parents/carers as directed, taking into account parental/carer concerns, dealing with them sensitively, establishing constructive relationships and offering appropriate advice and guidance under the direction of the teacher.
- Will support the teaching staff by reporting pupil progress and achievements at parents evenings which are usually held outside school hours.
- Will be responsible for developing and maintaining manual and computerised records and contributing to the reviews of systems/records as required.
- Will provide clerical/administrative support as directed by the teacher.
- Will implement local and national learning strategies and will support pupils to achieve learning goals e.g. literacy, numeracy, KS3, early years as directed by the teacher whilst making effective use of opportunities provided by other learning activities to support the development of relevant skills.
- Will support pupils in the use of ICT in learning activities as directed by the teacher, develop skills to deliver ICT packages to pupils and develop pupil's competence and independence in its use.
- Will participate in own performance development, identify and address any training needs/other learning activities.

Supervision and range of decision making:

- Will assist with the supervision of pupils out of lesson times, including before and after school and at lunchtimes, accompanying teaching staff and pupils on visits, trips and out of school activities; taking responsibility for a group under the supervision of the teacher.
- Will take line management responsibility in the supervision of other Teaching Assistants, students on work experience, trainees and voluntary helpers. Undertake induction, appraisal, training and mentoring as necessary.

Communications and working with others:

- Promote the Trusts values, core purpose, and key principles
- Establish effective working relationships, and set a good example through presentation, and personal and professional conduct.
- Liaise effectively with parents and colleagues within the School and wider Trust.
- Fully participate in the work of a curriculum learning team
- Will have contact with members of the public/other professionals e.g. teaching staff, governors, parents/carers, community groups, local education authority, external providers etc.

Resources:

- Operate equipment/ICT packages that are relevant to the position.
- To maintain the confidential nature of information relating to the school, its pupils, parents and carers.
- The provision, use and storage of equipment and materials used by pupils with whom the post holder is working.
- General responsibility for the care of all equipment and materials within the classroom / designated area of the school.

Professional development:

- To participate in extracurricular activities, such as outings, social activities and sporting events; including a willingness to participate in occasional overnight visits, as required.
- Actively engage in Appraisal, training, continuous professional development and other learning activities as required
- To seek, consider, and act upon professional support and advice as required

Other Considerations:

- To be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to child protection; being vigilant for signs that children may be being abused and to report any such suspicions to the school's nominated Child Protection Co-ordinator or the Headteacher.
- This post may include a degree of manual lifting and handling. You are expected to be aware of health and safety policies and procedures and frequently assess your ability to carry out the lifting tasks required of you.
- To act in accordance with the Data Protection Act and maintain confidentiality at all times e.g. access to staff/student/parent and carers files.
- Accept and commit to the principles underlying the Schools Equal Rights policies and practices.
- Be able to perform all duties and tasks with reasonable adjustments, where appropriate, in accordance with the Equality Act.
- Must be legally entitled to work in the UK
